Core Value Statement

The Australian Stock Horse Society exists to:

- promote the development and acceptance of the Australian Stock Horse as an equine breed of excellence and importance;
- provide service to all facets of the Australian Stock Horse industry;
- guarantee that the welfare of the Australian Stock Horse is protected at all times; and
- ensure that all individual members of the Society, and those who serve as Directors, Breeders, Competitors, Coaches, Judges, Stewards and Volunteers act with honesty and integrity in all of their dealings with the Society, other members, clients and the public at large.

Undertakings

- Members of The Australian Stock Horse Society who engage in accredited coaching activities undertake that they will act in accordance with the core Value Statement at all times.
- Members of The Australian Stock Horse Society who engage in accredited coaching activities undertake that they will act in a manner fitting and proper to one accorded the honour of being an accredited coach.
- Members of The Australian Stock Horse Society who engage in accredited coaching activities will endeavour to maintain their professional knowledge, set exemplary standards in behaviour by being polite and courteous to customers and clients, keep abreast of changes in coaching techniques and methodologies, be a positive role model and at all times abide by the Code of Ethics of the National coaching Accreditation Scheme.
- Members of The Australian Stock Horse Society who engage in accredited coaching activities will at all times abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Society.

Understanding

With the adoption of the NCAS Syllabus for the Australian Stock Horse, the Society has entered the world of formally accredited programmes and coaches. This is a trend that will increase in importance in the future. Coaches therefore have certain responsibilities and obligations to the Society that include dealing with the public in a manner befitting an Accredited Coach.
