ABOUT THE AWARD

The Commonwealth Bank Star of the Year Trophy is an Annual Award that recognises an Australian Stock Horse that is an ambassador and is promoting the Australian Stock Horse Society outside the Showring and in the public eye. A Member may nominate a horse owned by themselves or a horse belonging to another Member. Branches are asked to pass nominations on to their respective Management Council. The Management Council then deliberates on the best horses to submit to the Board by the 31st March 2010.

On a separate sheet attached to the Nomination Form please submit a resume of the horse nominated, with details of their achievements in the calendar year of 2009. Nominations should include the reasons why the horse should be selected for the Award. Please include a photo suitable for publication.
