HERITAGE STUD BOOK

The HERITAGE STUD BOOK is recognised as the highest standard of breeding of the Australian Stock Horse. A horse shall be eligible for registration in this category if it is registered in the Stud Book category and if in addition it exhibits a minimum of 87.5% Australian Stock Horse heritage lineage. For the purpose of this category of registration, 'heritage lineage' shall mean that the horse is a descendant either of the same breeds of horses ridden by the Australian Light Horse in World War I or of the breeds existing in Australia prior to 1945.

Registration Categories & Eligibility

Levels of registration, listed from highest to lowest, are as follows:

HERITAGE STUD BOOK (mare, gelding or stallion)

STUD BOOK (mare, gelding or stallion)

Second Cross (mare, gelding or stallion)

First Cross (mare or gelding only)

Base Registry (mare, gelding or stallion)
