Vision

The Australian Stock Horse Society wants the Australian Stock Horse to have the highest profile of any breed of horse in Australia with worldwide recognition.

Aims

To preserve the heritage and identity of the Australian Stock Horse.

To promote the development and popularity of Australian Stock Horses throughout Australia and the world.

To maximise the benefits of owning a Registered Australian Stock Horse and being a Member of The Australian Stock Horse Society.

Mission

To maintain the heritage and to promote the bloodlines and high performance of the Australian Stock Horse among equestrian activities and the general public.

Dear Members,

This is my first report for the Journal as Chairman, commencing in the role in early June following the AGM in Melbourne.

To give some background, I have been an ASHS Member for over 50 years and grew up on a family property near Walcha, NSW. I have had a career in the cattle industry throughout Australia, always riding ASH for competition and work.

Many of you will have received various communications from the Board following the recent AGM and Board meeting held in Melbourne.

I would like to congratulate the winners of the various awards presented at the Awards Night after the AGM, and in particular those recipients of the Campdraft Horse, Youth and Branch awards who travelled from interstate and New Zealand.

A reminder of the diverse membership across Australia and within the ASHS, was that while some attended the AGM in the cold in Melbourne, other Members from the NT/WA Branch were running the ASH Open Campdraft & Maiden Campdraft Series at Katherine from the 29th to 31st May in the warmth.

The AGM also marked a change in the leadership and transition of Directors, with Larry Cutler, Tricia Thomas, Robert Watchirs and Heath Shadgett retiring, and we thank them for their service to the ASHS. New Directors appointed include Brett Welsh (QLD), Sue Kirkby (NSW), Codie Law (NSW) and Sheona Lamb (Vic) and all joined the existing Board Members at a meeting the following day.

The AGM and Special General Meeting brought together passionate Members who have now had the opportunity to express their concerns and voice opinions on many aspects regarding the future direction of the ASHS. The Board will be engaging more transparently with the membership and have undertaken to improve communication and respond to the feedback received. Some proposed changes to the Committee structure will facilitate input and pathways for Members to contribute at different levels from Branches and Management Councils and onto Committees.

Recently world affairs and weather have interrupted events and lead to some cancellations, in addition to the dry seasonal challenges in NSW and QLD, together with very wet conditions in the north. However, ASHS Members are very resilient, and many have still managed to run events and compete despite the challenges.

Some events of note include Barastoc Polocrosse at Warwick where the quality and presentation of horses resulted in worthy winners of various best pony prizes – unfortunately the Polocrosse Nationals in Darwin were cancelled this year but will back on in Darwin in June 2027.

Some events coming in the Spring include:

- ASHS National Youth Show, Uralla, NSW – New England Branch 30/9 – 2/10
- NSW State Youth Show at Gunning, NSW – Southern Tablelands Branch – 17-18/10

I would encourage Branches and Management Councils to support our Youth and younger Members in attending these State and National events. Funding is available at all levels.

Recently I was in the ASHS office in Scone and had the honor and opportunity to catch up with Neville and Lynette Holz and hear some of their insights into the history and stories from Neville's time on the Board. Always humbling to hear from those who have walked before us and left a legacy.

Remember to keep an eye out for regular updates 'From the Board' on the website and/or ASHS Facebook page. We are a member-based organisation and Directors are here to represent the membership, so please make contact and we appreciate your support.

Regards

Hugh Barnet

30 YEARS OF YOUNG JUDGES

It's been 30 years since the inaugural RAS/ ASHS Young Judges National Final was held at Moore Park showgrounds, Sydney, in 1996, and in the three decades since, it's proven a key pathway to encouraging our Youth Members and developing the next generation of knowledgeable and confident ASHS Judges.

Our congratulations to this year's winner of the coveted national title, Sienna Finemore, Victoria, and to: Reserve Champion, Lara Parnell, Qld, third placegetter, Lucy Goodyer, NSW, and fourth placegetter, Brianna Bradshaw, SA.

Goulburn Murray Branch secretary Cate Prichard says Sienna Finemore is "a wonderful ambassador" for the Australian Stock Horse Breed.

From a long line of equestrians, Sienna was riding before she could walk and has competed widely across Pony Club, Interschools, harness competitions and the showing.

"She has always been a great contributor and a versatile little rider," Cate says.

"It's not unusual to see her competing in side-saddle or driving heavy harness with her parents. Whatever she is doing, she always has a smile on her face, and is asking, 'How can I help?'"

Cate says the Branch couldn't be prouder of her achievements. Shortly after the RAS competition, Sienna received the Goulburn Murray Branch Outstanding Achievement Award, which is given annually in recognition of an exceptional Branch Member.

In 30 years, the Branch has celebrated great success at Sydney; Lachlan Sim won the Young Judges title back-to-back in 2007 and 2008 and came runner-up in 2009, Ellyn Prichard was runner-up in 2016, and Lucy Goodyer (also on our cover) ran third this year.

"The Stock Horses started when I was about seven," says Sienna, who is currently campaigning the five year-old gelding THE GOVERNOR (WAYLON J BRONSON – HSH/ ASAR CHATTER – HSH) bred by Sam & Rachael Amey, ASAR Stock Horse Stud.

She progressed from her Branch junior judging competition, advancing through the Victorian State Final to earn her spot at Sydney. Unlike the Branch and State competitions, the RAS Young Judges National Final is equally weighted between a judging and oral interview component, with its own scorecard.

Sienna says she was thrilled to have a crack in the big ring: "It was nerve-wracking, but my fellow competitors were very supportive. It was really fun to get in there and be around people of the same age, who were doing the same thing as you."

Meanwhile, Reserve Champion Lara Parnell also left Sydney inspired, after representing the Eastern Downs Branch. Selected through the Queensland State Championships, this was her first trip to Sydney Royal.

Growing up in the Show Horse world, Lara first became involved with the ASH two years ago, purchasing the now rising five year-old gelding RYABLU BAILLEE – HSH and trying her hand at campdrafting and challenges.

"I've always had a love for the Breed, I love how diverse they are," Lara says.

"You can go from a showjumping round to a dressage round to just getting out in the paddock. I love how easy they are."

Now balancing university studies in Port Macquarie, NSW, with competition, Lara hopes to increase her involvement at Branch level before completing her ASHS Judges Accreditation.

Congratulations to all of our finalists in the RAS/ASHS Young Judges National Final; our future certainly is bright!

Winner of the 2026 RAS/ ASHS Young Judges National Final was Sienna Finemore, Vic. See p22 for more from Sydney Royal.

From North Queensland: Cape York & Tablelands Branch Campdraft

In North Queensland, Tully competitor Terry Luck & THE NOMAD DRIFTER has won the Cloncurry Mustering Maiden Campdraft at the Cape York & Tablelands Branch Campdraft, held at Glen Gordon Station in June.

The Northern Australia Management Council was proud to sponsor prizes for the Highest-Placed Registered Australian Stock Horses & Members in the first round of the Maiden: 1st Terry Lack & THE NOMAD DRIFTER, 2nd Shae Pasetti & GEEBUNG FUNNY FACE – HSH, 3rd Scott Findlay & ROSCOMMON MARIZTA, 4th Robyn Cowan & MR SUNNY HAWK – HSH, 5th Christine Bensted & SANDYTATE BONNIE and 6th Jacko Shephard & STAREEN ROCKSTAR. Congratulations to all winners and placegetters!

YOUTH SPOTLIGHT: Q&A with Mikayla Holden, Albany, WA

High-achieving ASHS Youth Member Mikayla Holden, 15, was accepted into the Great Southern Academy of Sport at Albany, WA, earlier this year, for achievements in the Australian Stock Horse arenas. Our congratulations to Mikayla, who joins an elite group of young sportspeople, lifting the profile of the Breed and representing the Society with pride.

Mikayla joined us for a quick Q&A:

When did you start riding and how did you first become involved with the ASH?

Horses have always been a big part of my life. I first started riding when I was five, on a friend's Shetland, getting carted around the paddock and learning real quick how to hang on. I was lucky enough to then get Buffy, a Welsh pony – who from the start, had the personality of one so much bigger than herself! Buffy and I did nearly everything together – this is what got me into competing, getting me hooked on the challenge and determination it took.

Tell us a little about your current horse?

After growing out of the ponies, I was so lucky to be given the opportunity to ride KARADAL CHANCE – HSH. Sitting in a friend's paddock, he wasn't in work and had never been ridden by a kid, but he had the right nature and not a mean bone in his body. He had solid basics in drafting, but no experience at all in English, and was very spooky and exceptionally quick. Quite amazingly, it only took a few months to get to know each other, and from there, we've never looked back. Chance opened all the doors with Stock Horse competition and campdrafting, enabling me to learn and love our sport. Gradually, we started doing more in all different disciplines, on alternate weekends, Chance proving just how versatile Stock Horses can be.

What are some of your most memorable achievements with Chance?

Major achievements include winning the Overall Show High-Point Juvenile title for the third consecutive year at the 2026 ASHS WA State Championships, the Overall Show High-Point Time Trial and Juvenile Campdraft, plus the State Finalist Youth Judging title. Locally, for the past three years, we've held several of the Great Southern Branch Zone Awards, most in the open categories. Nationally, we've won various sections in the National Youth Point Score, hopefully broadening this to competing over east in coming years. In 2025, I travelled to NZ to compete at the Gisborne Royal A&P Show, where we won and placed strongly across all classes – an awesome international experience.

What are your current goals?

Goals in the near future include getting over to Sydney Royal for both Youth Judging and ridden events, plus ASHS Youth Nationals. Earlier this year, I was lucky enough to be accepted into the Great Southern Academy of Sport, a youth sporting development program which aims to take regional athletes to the top of sport through specialized training. GSAS fosters talent, and supports athletes through high performance pathways, bridging the gap between regional and metro competitors. The program includes strength and conditioning weekly, agility and fitness, rehabilitation from injury, nutritional work, and general mentorship by like-minded people, all with similar goals, to go as far as we can within our sports.

I wouldn't be where I am without the amazing support of my family and my biggest mentors, Damien and Lynne Reid, who initially owned Chance and have been there every step after. From new movements, problems, handy tips, and new ideas, all the way to helping break a two year-old in last summer; the experience of spending the summer with young horses, campdrafting, attending youth camps, all the while preparing for States and improving throughout the season was invaluable, something that I learned a lot from and was a heap of fun. The future holds absolutely anything, with new horses, new levels and events, and lots more fun and learning, all to see how far we really can go!

From the North: Danny Groves & MOXYS WOLFMAN lead NT Maiden Series

In Katherine, NT, Round 1 of the Northern Territory State Maiden Series Campdraft has been run and won, with Danny Groves & the 15 year-old gelding MOXYS WOLFMAN (HAZELWOOD CONMAN – HSH/ DELIGHTFUL DESTINY) taking top honours.

In second place was George Hurst & SEVENANGLE TALLYHO – HSH, and equal third were James Hammonds & OAKDENE SHEBA – HSH, Cameron Latter & MINACHANT HORNET and Kate Hutchinson & RIVERSAND MALIBU.

After a few years' hiatus, the prestigious State Maiden Series returned to the north, kicking off in conjunction with the ASH Open Campdraft at Katherine in May.

Congratulations also to Olivia Rasheed & HAZACTION BONAPARTE, Kelly Daley & DALEYS PROMPT, and Georgia Glasson & CROWN WHITNEY, awarded Highest-Scoring Open, Novice and Maiden ASH, respectively, in the Open draft.

R2 & the Final of the State Maiden Series will be held at Timber Creek in September.

INTRODUCING THE ASHS STOCK HORSE CHALLENGE

With the increasing popularity of multi-phase Stockman's Challenge events, the Society is pleased to announce the introduction of the ASHS STOCK HORSE CHALLENGE.

This event is designed to showcase the versatility and willingness of the ASH Breed and the versatility and horsemanship of the rider. It also demonstrates the bond between horse and rider.

The ASHS Stock Horse Challenge will be run over a number of phases. There will be four mandatory phases, and the event must include a minimum of seven and a maximum of 10 phases.

The committee conducting the event will be responsible for selecting the additional phases to be contested. The number of phases will be determined by the number of competitors and time available.

Mandatory phases include:

- WORKING
- UTILITY/ STATION HORSE
- TIME TRIAL
- WHIP CRACK

There are several options for the additional phases and selection of these is up to the organising committees, depending on venue, ground surface, cattle availability, enclosed arenas etc. Committees can select the remaining phases from one of the ASHS approved disciplines. If cattle and facilities are available, it is recommended that a cattle phase be included.

Additional phase options include, but are not limited to:

- OBSTACLE COURSE
- CATTLE PHASE
- SHOW JUMPING
- SPORTING EVENT
- POLOCROSSE PATTERN
- HACK

For more information, please see Section 11 of the ASHS EVENTS RULES & REGULATIONS available on the Society website: ashs.com.au - SPORTS/ EVENTS

We look forward to seeing Branches hosting these events in the future, that we know will be popular with our Members.

ASHS MEMBERS PERFORM AT NSW INTERSCHOOLS

The ASHS was pleased to sponsor four ASH Awards at the recent ENSW Interschools held at Sydney International Equestrian Centre in July. We would like to congratulate the winners and also recognise all those who were competing on registered Australian Stock Horses.

Highest-Placed Australian Stock Horse

Combined Training: Taylor Chick-Sauer & SILVERTHORN WILLS – HSH

Show Horse: Indy Gardiner & OBAR QUICK SIP

Jumping: Gracie Clements & COLWAY FLINTLOCK – HSH

Dressage: Torah Kelly & GLEN LEE RIVOLI HAVE A SHOT - HSH

OBAR QUICK SIP, ridden by Indy Gardiner, was Highest-Placed ASH in the Show Horse section

Taylor Chick-Sauer's SILVERTHORN WILLS - HSH was the Highest-Placed ASH in the combined training section

Stock Horses shine at Willinga Gold Buckle

The Australian Stock Horse once again showcased its wonderful versatility and performance at the 2026 Willinga Park Gold Buckle Campdraft Championships, with Stock Horses claiming top honours across several feature events.

The pinnacle event, the prestigious Gold Buckle Campdraft, was won by Pete Comiskey & Soda Blue Exotic, an eight year-old gelding by One Stylish Pepto from SODA ESCORT – HSH, who goes back to old lines including WARRENBRI ROMEO – HSH and NABINABAH THE GUN – HSH.

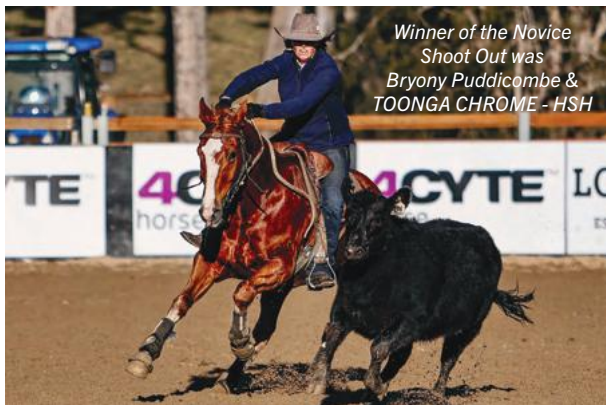

10 Stock Horses graced the highly anticipated final and featured prominently in the placings.

Success continued in the Novice Horse Shootout, where Bryony Puddicombe & TOONGA CHROME – HSH claimed the title ahead of Pete Comiskey & Soda Blue Exotic in second, and Wyatt Young & WESTLAKE CORONATION third.

Taking top honours in the Maiden Horse Shoot Out was Troy Palmer & WILLINGAPARK IMPRESSIVE SASSY, while Fiona Gordon & GORDONVALE CASSIA – HSH topped a strong field in the Ladies Dash for Cash.

The next generation of ASH talent was also on display, with Clay Thompson & ROTHBURN DEVILLE finishing second in the Juvenile draft, and Georgia Maben & SILVERTHORN OAKS CHANDELIER placing third. Meanwhile in the Restricted Open, Rob Leach & HAZELWOOD CONGRESSMAN were second after a three way runoff.

Congratulations to all Members & ASH competing at the highest levels of competition at Willinga Park.

CORRECTION TO MAY JOURNAL

On pages 37 and 65 of the May 2026 ASH Journal, OzShots Photography was credited for the photo of Marli King & RIVERDALE IDAHO competing at the 2026 Pony Club Tasmania State Trials. This was incorrect – the photographer was Caitlin How Photography. Our sincere apologies for this error.

More Reasons to Belong

Your ASHS Membership now includes
Personal Accident Benefits

The ASHS is pleased to provide this benefit at no additional cost to members to offer financial relief and support in the event of an injury during a sanctioned event.

Personal Accident insurance provides limited income protection and capital benefits to members and volunteers who are injured whilst participating in an Australian Stock Horse Society sanctioned event.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who is Insured?

A: Members – All registered members, including temporary and non-riding members of the ASHS while participating in an ASHS sanctioned event, this includes whilst travelling to or from the event.

Directors, volunteers and officials – Those assisting with the preparation, running and packing up of a sanctioned event, this includes whilst travelling to or from the event. Voluntary workers also include judges or those in a similar capacity.

Q: Are Members covered under the policy?

A: Yes. Members are covered provided they have paid their membership, signed the waiver and paid their entry fees before competing or participating.

Q: Are Temporary Members covered under the policy?

A: Yes, Temporary Members are covered provided they have paid their membership, signed the waiver and paid their entry fees before competing or participating.

Q: How do I lodge a claim?

A: If an incident arises, please contact the ASHS National Office for a copy of the claim form. Complete the form in full and return it to the ASHS National Office, who will forward your claim to the Society's Insurance Broker, Affinity to be assessed by the insurer. Claims will be managed by Affinity in partnership with the insurer.

Q: What if I can't work as a result of my injury?

A: If you are unable to work due to an injury sustained at an ASHS sanctioned event, the Personal Accident policy provides a weekly loss of income benefit, subject to the applicable waiting period, benefit period and policy limits. The policy also provides cover for Non-Medicare Medical Expenses (for example, physiotherapist, chiropractor, osteopath), again subject to the terms and conditions of the policy.

Q: What if I have my own Personal Accident Insurance Policy?

A: If you have multiple Personal Accident or Income Protection policies, you may claim on all of them, provided you do not claim more than the actual loss. Death or permanent disability compensation would be paid up to the policy limits on all current policies. However, you will generally need to claim on your other policies first before you can claim on this policy.

Hugh Barnett

Chairman & South Queensland Director

50Yr Diamond ASHS Member and an Australian Stock Horse breeder of more than 40 years, Hugh Barnett was recently elected Chairman of the ASHS Board.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

I joined the ASHS as a teenager with a keen interest to follow the newly formed Society and an intention to own Australian Stock Horses. I have bred and used ASH in my jobs on properties and northern cattle stations throughout my career.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

My first formal position was as Branch President of the Whitsunday Branch in the mid-1990s, and I have also been an ASH Inspector since that time. I felt it was time to use my management experience and knowledge to contribute to the future of the Society.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

My career has been in management of rural properties and northern cattle stations around Australia, and I have held senior management positions for family and corporate entities. In recent years I have been a consultant-advisor for livestock operations and associated companies. Throughout this time, I have undergone management training programs and completed the Australian Institute of Company Directors course (MAICD).

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

Providing solutions for the Society to continue as a business, offering more value and support to a changing membership base. There is also opportunity through better communication and use of technology for data transfer, whilst offering some changes in the type of events and training programs provided by the ASHS.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I have competed and worked in most horse disciplines, however some of the most interesting experiences have been working and training horses, cattle and camels for films and advertisements including "Burke & Wills" and "Australia."

Sue Kirkby

New South Wales Director

Sue Kirkby has a long association with the Breed and the Society since leaving school in the early 80s and is the Convenor of the Marketing & Communications Committee.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

Probably watching the iconic scene in the Man from Snowy River galloping down the mountain.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

I was actually encouraged to nominate by a friend and fellow Member; I probably would have been far too shy and unsure of myself without his encouragement. I thought it was time for some fresh ideas at Board level.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

A lifetime of breeding and working with Stock Horses, including competition, sale preparation, judging and instructing, the ability to listen to differing points of view and the flexibility to compromise. I enjoy interacting with people from all sorts of different backgrounds and listening to their stories. I run my own business and have previously worked in payroll and administration in a busy and culturally diverse business. Being semi-retired, I now have time to dedicate to the role.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

We have an exceptional product that has been perfectly designed to fit our unique Australian landscape and horse sports; the opportunities in the ever-growing performance horse industry are boundless if we play our cards right and promote our ASH.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I love classical music, going to the ballet and AFL football.

Andy Ide

Director for Victoria/ South Australia/ Tasmania

From Strathalbyn in SA, where his family has long operated Chalani ASH Stud, Andy Ide joins the Board, with a long and successful career in IT and software development. His professional expertise as a senior software engineer will prove invaluable in leading the Society's digital transformation.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

My wife runs Chalani Australian Stock Horse Stud, so meeting her sparked my interest in the Breed.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

A hope that my IT-based skillset can assist the Society.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

I am a senior software engineer by trade so I hope that my project management skills in IT will allow the Society to realise some of its technology goals.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

IT is moving so fast, so I feel there are great opportunities in the sector.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I am a basketball referee. I mainly ref SA country and some metro games but have also been in the SA contingent of the Australian Schools Tournament, a national tournament held on the Gold Coast.

Barry Moore

New South Wales Director

A Platinum ASHS Member and Australian Stock Horse breeder of more than 35 years, Barry is the Convenor of the Youth & Development Committees.

What first sparked your interest in the Society?

The fact that it was Australian and promoted the Australian Stock Horse, I was hooked and wanted to be part of a wonderful Australian Heritage Icon. After attending local Branch shows and campdrafts it became my life.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

Firstly, I had seen some inspirationally dedicated icons from my hometown in Neville Holz and Joy Poole, give so much to the Society. I had also observed a distinct change in direction over an era where Quarter Horses were being touted as the best horses available within our Society. I believed in the unique ASH and wanted to get involved to assist in upholding the mission statement of preserving the heritage and identity of the ASH.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

When I joined the Board, I had years of experience at Branch level through the roles of vice-president and president of the Northern Branch, delegate to NSW MC, and also an eight-year tenor as president of the Gunnedah Show Society Campdraft Club. On a business level, I was running a small business with my wife as electrical contractors, along with a small farm and our Starwaltz A.S.H Stud. Further along, I have since taken a role with Rexel Electrical Wholesalers as a branch manager. My skills start with knowing our product, the Australian Stock Horse; I am a breeder, competitor, judge, inspector and most importantly, a keen enthusiast for the history of the Australian Stock Horse and our Society, which I was heavily involved with in our past 50th Anniversary celebrations. From a professional point of view, I have the skills of managing a small business, staff recruitment and management, payroll, BAS, ATO, super etc., now managing a $10M annual turnover branch with five staff and an inventory of $1M.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

Most importantly, we must keep the identity of the ASH, an Australian icon, and we must pay homage to our forebears who gathered and took action to ensure that the Australian-bred ASH had its identity and heritage preserved. Nothing else compares; if we lose our identity then we lose everything that was put in place in our history.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I have barracked for the St George Dragons since I was eight and have never wavered through good times and bad – that dedication is no different to our Australian-bred ASH and the Heritage Stock Horse, who is listed at the highest level of registration achievable within the Society. My support for the Heritage Stock Horse will never waver and I am proud to support them now and into the future.

Sheona Lamb

Director for Victoria/ South Australia/ Tasmania

Sheona Lamb joins the Board with more than 30 years' experience on committees, coordinating Pony Club competitions plus horse events at Royal Melbourne Show for several years.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

My father bred Australian Stock Horses when I was very young, before moving into breeding ponies, and later Thoroughbred-cross ponies, so my siblings and I always had well-bred horses to ride as we grew up. More than 30 years later, our family has come full circle and returned to ASH.

The turning point came when my son was nine years old and wanted to try something different. He asked if he could "chase cows," so we bought him an ASH – and we've been involved with the Breed ever since.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

I received a phone call from a retiring Board Member asking whether I would consider nominating. I was genuinely humbled to be approached.

Before making my decision, I spoke with a number of Members from my Branch to seek their advice and guidance. Their encouragement and confidence gave me the reassurance to put my name forward. Without their support, I don't think I would have had the confidence to nominate.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

Horses have been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. Over the past three decades, I have served on committees and helped organise events ranging from Pony Club competitions through to Royal Shows.

I managed the horse events at Royal Melbourne Show for four years, which gave me valuable experience across multiple equestrian disciplines and a broader understanding of the industry.

Through these roles, I have developed strong communication and leadership skills, working with people from all walks of life and collaborating respectfully with those who hold different perspectives. I also bring the practical experience of running our own business and regularly liaising with a wide range of industry stakeholders.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

I believe the opportunities for the ASH are endless. The Breed has so much to offer across many aspects of the equine industry. Our greatest opportunity is to continue promoting the versatility of the Breed and increasing its presence in Australia's rapidly growing performance horse sports, while never losing sight of our grassroots Members and the everyday riders.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

Despite spending so much time outdoors, I don't enjoy swimming in the ocean or sitting on the beach. Give me a river any day!

Anna Kennedy

Western Australia
Director

Platinum ASHS Member Anna Kennedy brings to the Board a lifetime's experience with Australian Stock Horses, used for work and pleasure, qualifications in business and agriculture, and proudly represents our ASHS Members in the West.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

My family have been involved with Stock Horses for as long as I can remember. My parents used horses on the station; I grew up tailing out stock, then taking the horses to the few local gymkhanas. I became a Member when I was in secondary school, where I was interested in "The Breed for Every Need," and the history of Australia's early horses and their achievements.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

With the encouragement of past Board Members, I nominated for the Board to ensure the Society stay true to the original aims, and to represent the Members in WA.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

Exposure to a wide range of horse activities in WA, for both work and pleasure, business and agricultural qualifications and experience, and ongoing adult education.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

To give purchasers and riders of Australian Stock Horses the confidence that the horses are true to type, athletic and comfortable, sensible but have "try," and no disease surprises.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I collect coins.

Brett Welsh

South Queensland
Director

Third-generation horseman Brett Welsh joins the Board for a third term as South Queensland Director, and is the current Stud Book Convenor.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

I have been involved with The Australian Stock Horse Society since I was a youth, my grandfather was a breeder and competitor, so I am a third-generation horseman.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board and what skills, experience or expertise do you bring?

Having spent six years previously on the Board and seeing the division that was occurring, I felt I could help bring Members back together and promote the best horse in the world.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

I want to help showcase our Breed and ignite the passion in our youth to carry on what has been built to date.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

Something not many know about me, is that I represented Australia in white water slalom in 1999 and was selected on to the train-on squad for the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games but chose to follow my horse pursuits instead, as horses is where my passion was and always will be.

Jenny Petrich

Northern Queensland/
Northern Territory
Director

ASHS Platinum Member Jenny Petrich has served nearly two decades on the ASHS Board, is the current Senior Vice-Chairman and Convenor of the Member Services and International Committees.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

I was working on a cattle station in NQ where I prepared and presented around 30 horses for ASH Classification in the early 80s. I was very impressed with the type, temperament, and athletic ability of these horses.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

At that time, I was president of the North Queensland Management Council, and I was encouraged by previous MC president, Graeme Idstein and by retiring Director Glen Gough.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

At this point, I have served close to 20 years on the Board and have achieved relevant skills in Corporate Governance (Australian Institute of Company Directors). I developed and managed an international tourism venue for 20 years where I presented ASH horses to the public to both tourists and corporate groups, through interactive, hosted performances. This included forward planning, budgeting, promotion on national and international markets and management of HR. I currently work as a qualified, industry current trainer and assessor, and understand the requirements for course development and validation of training programs. I have well-developed communication skills.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

To continue to promote our wonderful iconic Breed to Australians and the world, hopefully through the opportunity of the coming Olympic Games.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I currently work as a trainer and assessor in remote areas of the Northern Territory, North Queensland, the Torres Strait and Papua New Guinea, delivering land management and best practice values, where English is often a third language. This keeps me enjoying life in an ever-changing environment. In a previous life, I trained as a photographer and have worked in a few international locations.

Codie Law

New South Wales Director

*ASHS 50Yr Diamond Member
Codie Law joins the Board for a second term in 2026, after first serving as NSW Director about five years ago, and is the current Junior Vice-Chair.*

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

I have been involved with Stock Horses my whole life. My parents, Barry and Annette Law, were Founding ASHS Members, and my late father Barry was a Classifier from then until not long before his passing. We have been breeders of Stock Horses and have stood stallions such as RIVOLI RAY – IS HSH, NABINABAH COOL GUN – IS HSH, KNEIPPS CONRAY – HSH, BEAUVIEW LANCE – HSH and now TRINITY ADIOS OLIGO – HSH. My sister, Tamara, and I both grew up showing and riding our own homebred horses. Nowadays, Natalie and I and our children, Riley and Hannah, regularly compete in campdrafts and sell horses at all of the major sales.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

This is my second term as a Board Member. I have always felt that you can't expect others to do all the heavy lifting, and that if you have an opinion, then get in and get your hands dirty and help others steer the direction of our Society.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

I have extensive experience as a Board Member of other horse industry organisations. I have served about 12 years on the Boards of the ACA and the ABCRA as well as eight years as Chairman of the National Campdraft Council of Australia (NCCA). We are breeders, competitors, and both Natalie and I run independent, off-farm businesses, so I think I have something to offer as a member of the Board.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

I strongly believe we have a great product in the horses within the ASHS Registry. There is great value in the strength and reputation of our Breed and the Stud Book. The value of horses and the ability of Members to be able to sell horses is based on the integrity of our extensive Stud Book Registry.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

Privately, I would love to be able to play the guitar confidently and also learn to play golf.

Sam Amey

NSW Director

With a lifetime's involvement in breeding and campaigning Australian Stock Horses, Sam Amey is a NSW Director, Board Treasurer, and Convenor for the Events and Finance Committees.

What first sparked your interest in the Breed?

My interest began with the sport of polocrosse and grew as I started competing in campdrafting and the show ring. Each step deepened my appreciation for the versatility and temperament of the Australian Stock Horse, and it's what led me to become more involved across different disciplines and within the wider community.

What inspired you to nominate for the Board?

I was genuinely worried about where the Society was heading, and I want to make sure there is a strong, healthy organisation for my kids and the next generation. For me, it has always been about the horse – protecting the Breed, supporting the sport, and ensuring the community around it remains positive and sustainable. I also believe that if you have something to say, you should put your hand up and volunteer your time. Contributing is how things improve, and I'm committed to being part of that effort.

What skills, experience or expertise do you bring to the Board?

I have a broad and genuine interest in the Stock Horse world, spanning campdrafting, polocrosse, showing, challenges, and supporting my kids as they compete. Over the years I've travelled extensively around Australia with our horses, and even overseas, always keen to learn, observe, and connect with others who share a passion for the Breed. Alongside my involvement in the horse community, I have operated my own plumbing business for more than 20 years. This has given me strong experience in managing staff, clients, scheduling, problem solving, and the day to day realities of running a successful business.

What do you see as the biggest opportunity for the Society over the coming years?

Going digital.

What is one thing Members may not know about you?

I have won and placed at Nationals and State DTL clay target events and even got the chance to compete at the Worlds.

2025 ASHS ANNUAL AWARDS

Each year, the ASHS Annual Awards presentation held at the conclusion of the ASHS AGM, invites us to reflect on the achievements that define our Society.

Whilst the trophies recognise excellence in competition, breeding and service, they represent something far greater. They celebrate the people who quietly give their time, the horses who showcase the great versatility of our Breed, those whose lifelong commitments have helped shape our Society, and the young Members who will help shape our future.

Congratulations to the recipients of the 2025 ASHS Annual Awards, and to all connections.

- Articles by Edwina Watson -

2025 WESTPAC BANK STAR OF THE YEAR

Perfectly embodying the versatility and public appeal of the Australian Stock Horse is Kate Clancy's CLANCYSTUD NAVIGATION who receives the 2025 Westpac Bank Star of the Year Trophy.

The Westpac Bank Star of the Year is awarded annually in recognition of an ASH who is an ambassador, promoting the Breed outside the showring and in the public eye.

For Kate Clancy, of K Clancy Horsemanship, Narrabri, NSW, the journey to breeding the charismatic, four year-old gelding began almost a decade ago when she purchased her first registered ASH, LINTONPARK MICHEAL JACKSON. Known affectionately as "Mate," he would claim the same prestigious Star of the Year award in 2019.

"I had admired the Breed for some time, so when purchasing Mate in 2016 I was ecstatic to also obtain my membership," Kate says.

"In 2018, SMART LITTLE COWTENDER was advertised in foal and we purchased her, resulting in the first horse to carry our prefix CLANCYSTUD WANDERLUST (dam of Navigation).

"Wanderlust was one of the most willing and honest young horses I've had the opportunity to work with."

So began an ASH breeding program founded on exceptional temperament, trainability and versatility.

By Topshelf Stock Horse's KOORALA BLACK LABEL – HSH, Navigation has already amassed tens of thousands of views across social media, and is a fan-favourite, performing in liberty shows, training schools and clinics. A highly intelligent and willing partner, he has also won and placed at Royal Show level – an exciting future awaits!

INAUGURAL KARRABA PARK HSH CAMPDRAFT HORSE OF THE YEAR

Queenslanders Evan and Kim Acton travelled from Gracemere, and were joined by Luke and Sandi Bennett, Dundee, NSW, to accept the prestigious inaugural Karraba Park HSH Campdraft Horse of the Year Award, for the 14 year-old homebred stallion MILLUNGERAS MOON BEAM – HSH.

By the legendary HAZELWOOD CONMAN – HSH from the esteemed four-time Warwick Gold Cup finalist and winner of 28 Open drafts, KIRKBYS STUD BLUE MOON – HSH, the ever-consistent Moon Beam needs no introduction.

Campaigned by Luke Bennett, in 2025 he won the Sydney Royal World Championship Campdraft for the second consecutive year, the Pinkett Open 4 Open & Glen Elgin Restricted Open, placed third in the Terry Snow Restricted Open & Stallion Shoot Out at Willinga Park, and fourth in the Warwick Stallion draft.

"Kim and I are so proud to have the Millungeras prefix on Moon Beam and are grateful for the opportunities he has given us,"

2025 ASHS ANNUAL AWARDS

Evan says. "This award was a great privilege and honour to receive." "Moon Beam means a tremendous amount to me," adds Luke. "He has genuinely changed my life, and my family's life. We've been given opportunities that we never imagined, and he's shown me a new standard of campdraft horse."

"Having started him under saddle is incredibly special. He's taught me so much along the way and in competition, he's given me the confidence to step up and compete at Open level."

"The trust and belief he's given me as a rider is something I'll always be grateful for."

A stallion close to all their hearts and now etched on the front gate too – Evan says their recently-purchased Gracemere property will be named "Moon Beam's Retreat."

2025 PRINCE OF WALES TROPHY

From Timbumburi, NSW, the Duncan family's 10 year-old mare SECRETHEART BOOTSCOOTIN – HSH (CONDAMINE RIVOLI RECRUIT – HSH/ HALCYON HOTSHOESHUFFLE – HSH) has earned the prestigious Prince of Wales Perpetual Trophy, after an extraordinary season across multiple disciplines.

"She is a one-in-a-million mare," says Angie Duncan, whose daughters, Zali and Alena, completed her breaking and training. "We are so grateful to breeder Sharlene Flanagan and Secretheart Stockhorses for breeding this amazing little mare, and parting with her so she could join our family."

"She came to us as a yearling; she was always a willing filly and as she matured her personality shone through. She always loved the speed events, especially where agility matters."

Alena and Bootscootin have made a formidable partnership, showcasing the ASH in arenas often dominated by other breeds. In 2025, Bootscootin was Showjumping Champion at the ASHS Nationals and competed in tetrathlon at the Pony Club Australia Nationals.

"She just lives for it, she watches the courses and seems to make her own plans," says Angie.

"She likes to ride it at her speed and not be checked up too much. In speed classes and jump offs, her ability to do tight turns at high speeds and keep her footing is truly exceptional."

"It sometimes makes you hold your breath, but she is definitely exciting!"

Last year, Bootscootin excelled in campdrafting at ISHE, placing third in a large contingent, and finished inside the top three in 1D junior barrel racing at the Australian Barrel Race Horse Association National Finals. She won the Junior Pole Bend National Championship for a second consecutive year, plus the Open Pole Bend National Championship at the National High School Finals Rodeo, qualifying Alena for the World Championships in Wyoming, US. Alena has also recently qualified for the 2026 World Championships in three events. We look forward to watching this duo in 2026!

2025 INTERNATIONAL PERFORMANCE AWARD

The Australian Stock Horse has long been celebrated for its versatility, toughness and willing nature, and across the Tasman, BULLENBONG FASHION – HSH (KIRKBYS STUD OMAHA – HSH/ NAUGHTONFOUR JET – HSH) has shown those qualities in spades.

The talented eight year-old mare owned by Mike Meredith, Masterton, NZ, receives the 2025 International Performance Award after an exceptional debut season, where she successfully transitioned into polocrosse, excelled in competitive sporting, was proven with a young child rider and demonstrated natural talent in cattle disciplines. Mike and his partner Raiden Gray travelled to Melbourne to accept the Award:

2025 ASHS ANNUAL AWARDS

"My appreciation of Stock Horses began when I started playing polocrosse years ago," Mike says.

"I had an unregistered Stock Horse in 2000, and she outperformed everything I had, and was the best horse I ever owned. She had a huge heart, and where most horses would tire and wear out, she would keep going, every day, day after day. There was no giving up, no quit.

Raiden Gray leading Harvey Gray on Fashion, at a regional NZ horse sports day.

"Keith Harrison purchased Fashion from John Angus in Victoria, and she arrived in NZ in June 2022. I always liked the look of the mare and how she went. She was one of only two HSH mares in the country that we were aware of; to get your hands on one is very hard. (That other mare is since deceased, so Fashion is in fact the only designated HSH mare in NZ).

"In November 2024 I asked to buy an egg from Fashion. After a few days and some thought, Keith called back and said, "Why don't you buy the horse instead?" Neither of us knew she was for sale!

"It's really hard to breed a HSH horse over here, but a HSH mare gives us lots of options.

"She will be bred this coming spring via AI to GAMBERLEE JAGUAR and her progeny will be the only DOGWOOD COMET – IS HSH genetics in the country."

2025 ASHS VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Firstly, I would like to thank the Australian Stock Horse Members who thought enough of me to nominate me for Volunteer of the Year. This award is something I truly treasure, and I am deeply honored to receive.

Rachael and son Darcy, Champion and Reserve Champion Working ASH, Melbourne Royal, 2024. Photo Lisa Gordon.

The Australian Stock Horse has been a meaningful part of my life, and I feel enormously indebted to the Breed and everything it has given me. My family and I have been privileged to own some very special horses, both past and present.

Through those horses, we have travelled and competed together as a family, caught up with wonderful friends, made new ones, and experienced this beautiful country. We have enjoyed opportunities to perform at the highest level and created memories that will stay with us forever.

I have been fortunate and have spent many years doing what I love. As I transition into a stage of life where finding your year of birth on a computer requires quite a bit of scrolling, I found myself reflecting on how much things have changed.

For many Branches, the economic landscape today is very different from what it was ten or fifteen years ago. As a business owner, I understand the challenge. We are constantly approached for sponsorship – not only by Stock Horse Branches, but also by local football clubs, netball teams, Rotary clubs and countless other worthy organisations. Everyone is chasing the same elusive dollar.

I wanted to find a way to give back to the sport I love. While Branches work incredibly hard to secure sponsorship and prizes, the most valuable support any organisation can receive is financial support. Money allows events to happen.

That is why I decided to donate my time. I offer Branches the opportunity to organise clinics for Members and prospective Members, with the Branch retaining all proceeds. This is my way of sponsoring the Australian Stock Horse community.

To me, it was a simple decision. I love the horse, I want people to compete and develop a better understanding of the principles behind our various disciplines, and I believe I am able to communicate those concepts effectively. As a Level 2 Accredited Judge, I felt I could contribute something worthwhile. Most importantly, it creates a win-win situation for Branches.

When you travel to a remote area with a single main street, few shops and a small population, yet find a group of passionate people determined to bring their community together through a clinic, it is inspiring. These clinics provide a valuable source of income – far easier than endless fundraising efforts – and help Branches conduct events without the constant burden of financial pressure.

Another aspect of the Australian Stock Horse that resonates strongly with me is opportunity.

Whether it is competing at a local show, a Royal Show or a campdraft, opportunities within our sport can have a lasting impact. Sometimes we take those opportunities for granted. Over the years, the children of close friends have travelled and competed alongside us at various levels. I am forever grateful for the horses we have had on the truck, because each one has helped provide experiences and opportunities for others.

Horses play such an important role in the lives of young people. They teach responsibility, commitment, discipline and hard work.

In a world increasingly dominated by technology, those lessons are more valuable than ever. Seeing young people participate safely, challenge themselves and form new friendships is one of the greatest rewards. I genuinely believe that opportunity can be life-changing, and the Australian Stock Horse is often the common thread that makes those positive experiences possible.

My other passion is writing, and I only wish life allowed more time for it. Over the years, I have written articles for a variety of magazines and publications. The Australian Stock Horse Society provides endless material for great stories, and I have also enjoyed reporting on East Coast Royal Shows.

Good journalism is factual, fair and concise. Our Journal serves as a wonderful historical record of our Society, its horses, its Members and their achievements. It preserves our stories and our history for future generations, and that is something worth valuing.

The Australian Stock Horse has given me so much throughout my life. If I can contribute in some small way by sharing knowledge, creating opportunities and supporting Branches, then I consider myself very fortunate indeed.

2025 NANCY DAVIES MEMORIAL YOUTH AWARD

16 year-old Brianna Bradshaw travelled from Sheidow Park, SA, to accept the coveted Nancy Davies Memorial Youth Award at the ASHS AGM & Awards Dinner. In honour of longtime Wandoan ASHS Member, breeder and competitor, the late Nancy Davies, this memorial trophy is given annually by the Davies family to a Youth Member who: displays sportsmanship, presents themselves and their horses with pride, volunteers, and is a great ambassador for The Australian Stock Horse Society.

Brianna had this to say after the Awards presentation:

"Horses have been a part of my life for as long as I can remember, and my passion for them began with an Australian Stock Horse named CHALANI BOULDER.

My parents owned Boulder when I was growing up. He was an older gelding with a wonderful temperament, and although I was very young, he had a huge influence on me.

Sadly, Boulder passed away in 2015 when I was five years old, but he is the reason I fell in love with horses and the Breed.

A few months later, my parents purchased a three year-old gelding, CHALANI TWEED. He was originally bought for them, but when I was nine, I started riding him myself. Since then, we have learnt and grown through many different disciplines.

I began competing in dressage and showjumping at a low level and gradually worked my way up through the grades with Tweed. As my confidence and experience grew, I started exploring other disciplines, including showing and ASH classes. At the beginning of 2025, I decided that I wanted to become more involved in ASH events. As neither of my parents had been involved in the ASHS competition scene, I had to learn the ropes myself. I became a Member, entered my first show, and quickly discovered a passion for Stock Horse competition.

I have enjoyed giving back to the Breed by becoming involved with the South East of SA Branch committee. Being part of the committee has allowed me to contribute to the growth and success of our local Branch while meeting many wonderful people along the way.

The ASHS community has quickly become one of my favourite parts of being involved with horses. I have found the community to be incredibly supportive, welcoming, and encouraging; everyone is willing to lend a hand, offer advice, and make newcomers feel included. The friendships, support, and positive atmosphere at shows have made a lasting impression on me, and I am grateful to be part of such a wonderful community.

One of the highlights of my year was attending Sydney Royal Show; it was an incredible experience and one that I will never forget. While there, I competed in the ASH Youth Judging competition and was thrilled to place fourth.

It was a fantastic opportunity to learn from experienced horse people and be involved in such a prestigious event.

Receiving the Nancy Davies Memorial Award was a special way to finish what has been an exciting and rewarding year, especially as it was my first year actively competing in ASH events. It was both an honour and a surprise, and it has motivated me to continue pursuing my goals within the Breed.

Looking ahead, I hope to continue developing Tweed and work towards competing at Royal level in ASH showing. I am also excited to branch out into new disciplines, including challenges and campdrafting.

I am excited to see where my journey with Australian Stock Horses takes me and look forward to many more years of learning, competing, and enjoying the breed that first inspired my love of horses."

2025 ASHS ANNUAL AWARDS

2025 ASHS SPECIAL SERVICES AWARDS

The ASHS Special Services Award recognises an individual who has contributed significantly to their Branch, the Australian Stock Horse Breed, and the Society, over a number of years. The Award may also be given to Members for their extraordinary single efforts.

HELENE ALLOMES

SKYE NEWLING

The ASHS was proud to announce three Special Services awardees in 2025:

Helene Allomes, Tamworth, NSW: When asked, Helene Allomes says she “honestly can’t remember” a time when Stock Horses were not a part of her life. Born and bred into the Stock Horse fraternity, with her family involved in the Breed from its very early days, Helene has spent decades breeding ASH and competing across campdrafts, polocrosse and showing – and decades giving back. Helene has served for many years as committee member for the Northern Branch, with remarkable leadership, passion and initiative, and an unwavering dedication to the Society at local, State and National level. In 2025, Helene was instrumental in coordination of the Youth Clinic & Judges Clinic hosted by the Northern Branch, as well as the State Youth Show, where her ability to mobilise volunteers, secure resources and deliver an exceptional event highlighted her extraordinary commitment. Helene also consistently serves as delegate to the NSW State Management Council, and on the National Show Committee. Her tireless efforts, integrity, and ability to mentor, inspire and support others, makes her a most deserving recipient of the ASHS Special Services Award.

Helene says: “To be recognised in a breed organisation that has been such a big part of my life is incredibly humbling. The Australian Stock Horse represents so much more than horses and horsemanship to me – it represents family, friendship, resilience, and a connection to our Australian heritage. I feel very fortunate to have grown up surrounded by such passionate people and to be part of a community that has given me so much.”

Skye Newling, Scone, NSW: Growing up in Bellbrook, on the Upper Macleay, NSW – the birthplace of the legendary Foundation Sire ABBEY – HSH, and others – Skye Newling couldn’t help but fall in love with the ASH. She has spent decades in the industry, breeding and competing at Royal and National level. And as the saying goes, If you want something done, you ask a busy person. Skye has proudly served as Hunter Branch Secretary & Branch Show Secretary since 2021, and has overseen five Branch Shows in that time; most recently, with a two month-old baby and two young boys in tow. In the last 12 months the Branch has conducted three major shows, all of which have been managed by Skye – the Annual Branch Show in March 2025, a Challenge & Campdraft in July 2025 and the ASHS National Youth Show in October 2025. With her three young boys watching on, Skye has been instrumental in helping foster a healthy and sustainable Branch and organisation for the next generation of young horsemen and women to enjoy.

Skye says: “Hunter Branch has been a place where I’ve grown, both as a horseperson and as an individual. It’s taught me the importance of sportsmanship, hard work, and giving back to a community. Some of my favourite memories aren’t necessarily the ribbons or results, but the early mornings, the laughs with friends, the volunteers working behind the scenes, and the incredible horses that have brought us all together.”

Kristie Bargaquist, Kumbia, Qld: Meanwhile in Queensland, Kristie Bargaquist has led the revitalisation of not one but two previously-closed ASHS Branches – the Leichhardt and South Burnett Branches. Introduced to the Breed by her stepfather Peter Allan and competing in her first Nationals more than 30 years ago on BLUFF DOWNS CASSETTE – HSH (where she took home two firsts and a second), Kristie has a long association with the ASHS as a breeder, competitor and Accredited Level 2 Judge. Serving as the South Burnett Branch Secretary in 2025, Kristie epitomised the spirit of volunteerism, leadership and resilience which the Society seeks to recognise. Despite battling a long-term health condition along with all the challenges that come with facilitating a remote Branch, Kristie has generously given her time to the South Burnett, Leichhardt and Central & North Burnett Branches (the latter, having run their first ASH event in years). Managing her own successful business in bookkeeping, Kristie also provides welcomed support and advice to other Branches and ASHS Members and is a most deserving recipient of the ASHS Special Services Award.

Kristie says: “The Australian Stock Horse community has meant a lot to my family. We’ve made lifelong friends through the horses – some I’ve known for over 30 years now, and still cross paths and keep in touch with today.”

2025 ASHS BRANCH OF THE YEAR

The Society was proud to announce joint winners of the 2025 ASHS Branch of the Year award, the NZ Branch and the Northern Branch (NSW).

Hear from the NZ Branch p46.

New Zealand Branch: Happy 10th Anniversary! Congratulations to the New Zealand Branch, who have marked 10 years since their formalization as an ASHS Branch in 2016. See more on the celebrations and happenings of this small, but mighty International Branch on p 46.

Northern Branch, NSW: The Northern Branch continues to set a benchmark for excellence within the ASHS, delivering an outstanding year in 2025, built on proactive leadership, youth development, education and grassroots engagement.

Through careful planning and a dedicated committee, the Branch has created meaningful opportunities for Members of all ages and experience levels, whilst broadening the reach of the Australian Stock Horse across Northern NSW.

Youth development remains one of the Branch's greatest strengths and the cornerstone of its success. Its annual Youth School in August 2025 brought 40 riders from across the region together and offered expert instruction from respected competitors and top-level campdrafters.

More importantly, the program continues to demonstrate its long-term impact, with former participants – now knowledgeable, experienced competitors – returning as instructors in 2025. Graduates of the program have won and placed at ASHS Nationals, sold horses through the prestigious Nutrien Sale, and finalised in the hotly contested Nutrien Young Guns draft, returning to mentor the next crop of young horsemen and women.

In August 2025, the Branch also renewed its commitment to excellence and strengthening industry standards by hosting an ASH Judges Clinic, then welcomed the ASHS State Youth Show in November. Successful Branch events, together with sponsorship of local agricultural show classes, have further strengthened community engagement and promoted the Breed at the grassroots level.

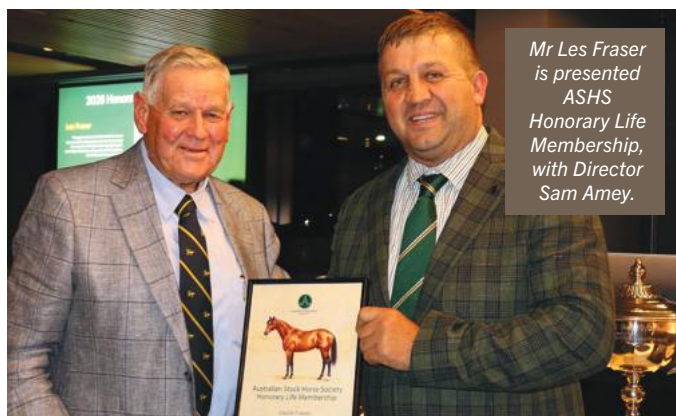

Meanwhile in the showing, Branch Members claimed top honours at the 2025 ASHS Nationals, with Barry Moore & STARWALTZ COOL JUSTICE – HSH winning the ABBEY Open Challenge, highlighting the depth of competition within the Branch, and the proven impact of its training programs.

Our congratulations to all at the Northern Branch on an excellent 2025 season!

ASHS HONORARY LIFE MEMBER

Mr Les Fraser, Warwick, Qld

Les Fraser has spent a lifetime proving that great horses and great people will shape the future of Australian equestrian sport. At the 2026 ASHS AGM, the respected Warwick horseman was recognised with the Society's highest honour, ASHS Honorary Life Membership, acknowledging more than six decades of unwavering service to the Australian Stock Horse and the sport of polocrosse.

Humbled by the recognition, Les said he was honoured to join the distinguished list of 68 Honorary Life Members who have devoted their lives to strengthening the ASHS.

"It's wonderful recognition for polocrosse and the contribution of the ASH in our sport," Les says.

"When you look back through the Life Members who came before me, they devoted their lives to making the Society a success. It was started by volunteers and, even today, it wouldn't survive without them."

His contribution to the game is impossible to overstate. Les played his first game of polocrosse in 1962 at 13 years old and has never missed a season in the 64 years since. He represented Australia in 1976 and 1983 before captaining the national side in the 1988 Test Series; all these experiences only solidifying his belief in the superiority of Australian horses.

"Playing overseas showed me what great horses we had back in Australia," Les says.

From an early age, Les had understood that to compete at the highest level, you needed good horses.

"When the ASHS was established, I supported it from the very beginning because it provided a way of tracking and recording our breeding," he says. "Not all well-bred horses are good, but you can bet your bottom dollar that all good horses are well-bred."

One of his greatest legacies came through his leadership in establishing the inaugural Polocrosse World Cup. Whilst the concept had originally been destined for the UK, Les fought to ensure the sport's first global showcase was held where polocrosse was born – in Australia.

Working alongside Charlie Brook, Kent Wells and Neville Gilpin, Les travelled across the country to source 140 horses (an extraordinary 85% ASH). Indeed, international competitors would go home in awe of the versatility and athleticism of the ASH.

Les's long-standing involvement with the Warwick Polocrosse Club, the annual Barastoc Interstate Series and the hosting of the State and National Championships, has also left an enduring mark on the Australian game. The Fraser family are also proud and generous supporters of Queensland campdrafting.

Meanwhile, Les remains passionate about protecting the breed that has underpinned his life's work. His hope for the next Polocrosse World Cup in Australia is simple but ambitious: "I would love all horses played to be registered ASHs – 150 registered ASHs at the World Cup 2030/31.

"The game used to be played in cow paddocks and is now played under lights on irrigated fields. The ASHS has been a big part of that. Protect the legacy you have been given and make sure you ride the very best ASHs you possibly can!"

2026 SYDNEY ROYAL SHOW

- Article by Rachael Schliebs
Photos Glenys Lilley Photography -

Easter, school holidays, chocolate, the end of daylight savings, and Sydney Royal. The fuel crisis is near its peak, but this is not going to disrupt the biggest agricultural event of the year. A wonderful line up of Australian Stock Horses greet judges Mrs Jaci Norris and Mrs Jane Allen who are officiating this year, and no doubt there's a little bit of history here, with Jaci's mother Mrs Vicki Mascord also judging Australian Stock Horses in the past.

Champion ASH Hack was Elle Mangan's KIRALA TOUCH OF CLASS - HSH, with judge Jaci Norris

Thursday the fillies, 2yrs and under are first to grace the arena, and time after time it is not unusual to see Jenny Weule at the top of the line with NETHAWAY CLASSIC BLACK – HSH, a small breeder, with a wonderful eye, and continuously producing quality youngstock that go onto bigger things. Second to Sarah Bennett's BLACK ENVY – HSH, third Aimee Mannix & Kydan Park ASH Stud's KYDANPARK KINDER SURPRISE – HSH, fourth Cole & Nicole Moxey's BRANDWOOD MONTANA, fifth Sharon McKell and JARENDAN JUST IDYLIC – HSH, and sixth Samantha Moeck and DOONGARA POWER N SPICE.

Suburban Lodge Show & Training Stables head the line in the 3yr old fillies with the highly successful HAMLOT PARK NASHVILLE, second SHEADY HIGH SOCIETY – HSH for Bronwyn & Owen Parker, third JINDALEE BELLISSIMO for the Davidge Family, fourth Ashley Worpel and JILLIBY ALIBI – HSH, fifth GLENECHO COALS AMBER and Georgia Johnson, sixth BALLENGARRA POPSTAR for Alex Pope.

The small mare class is jammed packed with quality, and the lovely grey mare PURE PLATINUM – HSH for Karen Nicoll receives the blue, second CLOVERLEAF CONDOS COOLDUST and Emily Ninness, third GEMSFIELD CLEMENTINE – HSH with Jacqui Langfield, fourth SHEADY JUBILATION and Ellyn Prichard, fifth Dana Madden and DANELLA RIVOLI LACE – HSH, sixth NIMBER PARK SASSY GIRL – HSH for Dan and Heidi Jones.

WIRRUMPARK EUPHORIA – HSH and Adam Wellington stand out for the first in the big mare class, second CEE DEE SPICE GIRL and Katrina Bullock, third Elle Mangan and KIRALA TOUCH OF CLASS – HSH, fourth MJAY LUNA for Melise Webb, fifth NERRIGUNDAH WALTZ – HSH for Combaning Stockhorses, and sixth Tahnee Sullivan and ROYALLE HEART STRINGS.

A beautiful line up for the Championship with the 3yr old HAMLOT PARK NASHVILLE taking the tri, with Jenny Weule and NETHAWAY CLASSIC BLACK – HSH Reserve Champion.

Jacqui Langfield and GEMSFIELD COMMANDER – HSH are winners of the 3yr old colt class.

BRANDWOOD ORLANDO for Cole & Nicole Moxey are at the head of the line for the stallion class, second ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE for Brett Welsh, third Georgia Owers and WAMSLEYS KENNY – HSH, fourth Jackie Long and NO FRILLS – HSH, and sixth Brydie McKillop and COOLIDOWNS HOUDINI.

BRANDWOOD ORLANDO no stranger to the winner's circle takes the Champion, with GEMSFIELD COMMANDER – HSH in reserve.

HAMLOT PARK NASHVILLE is awarded the Supreme Led Exhibit, this filly's career achievements in led events are extensive, and this may well be her biggest accolade yet.

After lunch the geldings have their turn, the two classes are large, and full of quality. The small gelding class is awarded to the grey ALLSTARS MAGIC for the Welsh family, second KAROOLAPARK KNIGHT OWL for the Merchant Family, third Michelle Partridge and YARRANOO DAZZLE, fresh off a National Futurity win, fourth, local Adam Wellington and WIRRUMPARK TITANIUM – HSH, fifth COMBANING DOWNS COOPER for Combaning Stockhorses and sixth OBAR QUICK SNIP for the Gardiner Family.

The large geldings just keep coming, a huge class, and no surprise to see the past two years' winner again at the head of the line, NETHAWAY TOP CLASS – HSH for Russell Quirk, second the MacIntyre's TINAGROO SCOUT, third PLAYMORE CLASSIC and Dana Madden, fourth BRANDWOOD SANTA CRUZ for Nicole Moxey, fifth Suburban Lodge Show and Training's GLEN LEE DOUBLE SHOT – HSH, sixth Hannah Plotecki and GLEN LEE RIVOLI RISQUE – HSH, seventh Adam Battaglia and SILVERTHORN STUN GUN – HSH.

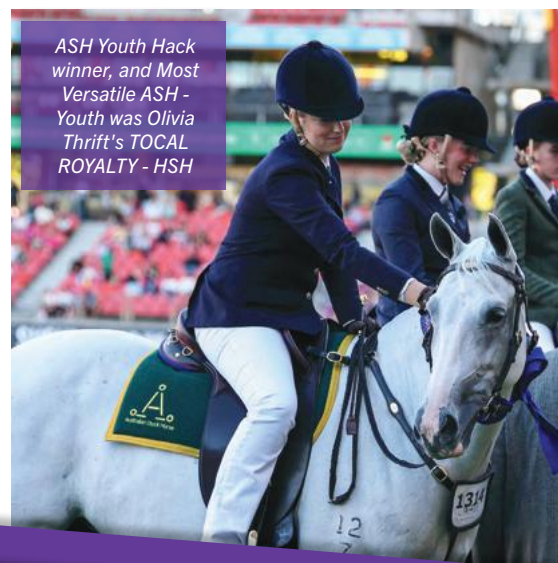

Champion Led ASH Stallion was Cole and Nicole Moxey's BRANDWOOD ORLANDO

Champion Led ASH Gelding for the third consecutive year was Russell Quirk's NETHAWAY TOP CLASS - HSH

Supreme Led ASH was HAMLOT PARK NASHVILLE presented by Stuart Robinson, with judge Jaci Norris

ASH Youth Hack winner, and Most Versatile ASH - Youth was Olivia Thrift's TOCAL ROYALTY - HSH

Another piece of history is made, no doubt, when NETHAWAY TOP CLASS – HSH is presented with the Best Led Australian Stock Horse Gelding award, three consecutive years, congratulations on a huge achievement.

The first ridden class of the show for the Australian Stock Horses is the James Angus Turnout, a class that is gaining more and more entries each year. It's a nice class to get the horses out on the arena, to see where they are at prior to hack day.

Always a little challenge with the arena having being shared with the harness horses, but testament to the Breed that it's no disadvantage for anyone, and a lovely display for the good crowd to watch. Deja vu for SHEADY JUBILATION and the Prichard Family repeating last year's effort with another win, second to GLENBIRNIE LEROY and Cameron Newman, third Cole Moxey and BRANDWOOD ORLANDO, fourth Georgia Owens and WAMSLEYS KENNY – HSH, fifth to STARWALTZ VERDICT – HSH and Bill Peadon, sixth to COMBANING DOWNS COOPER and Darcy Schliebs, and seventh to MJAY LUNA and Campbell Jones, riding for Melise Webb.

The last class for day one of the show is the Youth Hack, and what a class, there are a handful of kids riding their last year as a junior, and the competition is hot. The eye catching and successful TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH for Olivia Thrift is taking the blue today, second to HYDEOUT MISS ELLIE and Chloe Underwood, third Lucia Merchant and GORDONVALE CASSIUS, fourth Georgia Britt and GORDONS MAXIMUS, fifth Pip Cullen and BRAEVIEW SOLITAIRE, and sixth Macey Brown and WARATAH CAPITAL MARVEL – HSH.

Good Friday brings big crowds to the show, good weather, and competition gets underway with the Australian Stock Horse Hack under 4yrs.

The elegant combination of Nicole Moxey and BRANDWOOD SANTA CRUZ take the blue, second Michelle Banning and OAKTON LODGE SUDDEN INSPIRATION, third JINDALEE BELLISSIMO with Stephen Davidge, fourth BRANDWOOD MONTANA, fifth Georgia Johnson and GLENECHO COALS AMBER, and sixth Kimberley Campbell and ROCKGEDGIEL MISS BLISS – HSH.

The small hack mares is a quality class, and catching the judge's eye with a super workout is Zoe Lucas and GLENARTHON MYSTIC PAGE, second Olivia Thrift and TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH, third Emily Ninness and CLOVERLEAF CONDOS COOLDUST, fourth Chloe Underwood and HYDEOUT MISS ELLIE, fifth Skye Newling and RIPLEYS MIDNIGHT CHOIR – HSH, and sixth Makaidi Mair and the ageless CELEBRITY GIRL.

Big mares next with the beautiful KIRALA TOUCH OF CLASS – HSH and Elle Mangan taking the blue, and rewarded for really nice work, second Tahnee Sullivan and ROYALLE HEART STRINGS, third SHEADY GOSSIP GIRL – HSH and Ellyn Prichard, fourth MJAY LUNA and catch jockey Campbell Jones, fifth GLENECHO RIVOLI EMBER and Stu Robinson, and sixth Skye Newling and RIVERGLEN BLACK PEARL – HSH.

ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE and Brett Welsh win the small stallion hack class, second to Jackie Long and NO FRILLS – HSH, and third to Chantelle Vella and CHALAY BLUE CASCADE. In the big stallions, Brydie McKillop and COOLIDOWNS HOUDINI take the prize, second Aimee Mannix and GLEN LEE INCLUSIVE – HSH, third Scott Richardson and BERRAGOON FURPHY – HSH, fourth Abbey Lawson and LAWSONS MOONSHINE – HSH and fifth Georgia Owens and WAMSLEYS KENNY – HSH.

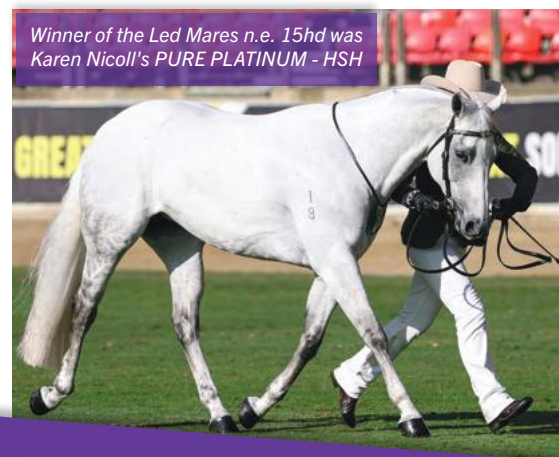

Best of the Led Geldings Under 15hds was ALLSTARS MAGIC, presented by Melanie Welsh.

Best of the ASH Geldings Over 15hds was Stu Robinson's GLEN LEE DOUBLE SHOT - HSH.

Most Versatile ASH was the Welsh family's ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE

Winner of the Led Mares n.e. 15hd was Karen Nicoll's PURE PLATINUM - HSH

The gelding classes are huge, in the small gelding class, Emma Donnelly and OBAR QUICK SNIP take the blue, second Jane Greentree and MAINS SHOMAN – HSH, third Adam Wellington's WIRRUMPARK TITANIUM – HSH, fourth Georgia Britt and GORDONS MAXIMUS, fifth Ella Barnett and DEROWIE SERENE MAGIC, sixth ALLSTARS MAGIC.

Stu Robinson is having a big show and is at the head of the line with GLEN LEE DOUBLE SHOT – HSH, second Eloise Claire and BULLSEYE KIDMAN, third TINAGROO CHARLTON – HSH for Audrey Pringle, fourth SHEADY NASHVILLE and Michelle Banning, fifth Gracie Clements and ROSSWELL CRUSADE, sixth BRANDWOOD OREGON and Bree Starkey, seventh Oliver Sinclair and WROBELS EL PHINN.

After lunch the ladies hack enter the ring, and they just keep coming and coming, what a class. After heats and quality workouts, the blue is awarded to BULLSEYE KIDMAN and Eloise Claire, second Jane Greentree and the consistent MAINS SHOMAN – HSH, third Zoe Lucas and GLENARTHON MYSTIC PAGE, fourth Jacqui Langfield and GEMSFIELD CLEMENTINE – HSH, fifth Emily Ninness and CLOVERLEAF CONDOS COOLDUST, sixth BRANDWOOD OREGAN and Bree Starkey, and seventh Loretta Lawson and TINAGROO SCOUT.

Gentleman's Hack steadily increases over the years, and Adam Battaglia works last but moves to the top of the line with a lovely workout, second to Campbell Jones and MJAY LUNA, third Darcy Schliebs and COMBANING DOWNS COOPER, fourth Brett Welsh and ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE, fifth Stu Robinson and GLEN ECHO RIVOLI EMBER and sixth Dan Jones and DOOLANPARTNERSHIP SUGAR – HSH.

A good crowd gather to watch the championship, the work is good, but one really takes the judge's eye today, the beautiful black mare KIRALA TOUCH OF CLASS – HSH and the humble Elle Mangan are worthy winners, and a popular pick with the crowd.

Eloise Clare takes the reserve with a stunning workout also with BULLSEYE KIDMAN.

On a perfect weather day, the ladies are out early for ASHLA, again deja vu for the beautiful combination of SHEADY JUBILATION and Ellyn Prichard, second Loretta Lawson on TINAGROO SCOUT, third Melanie Welsh and the grey ALLSTARS MAGIC, fourth Georgia Johnson and PLAYMORE MADONNA, fifth Lucy Goodyer and MORSES TRADEMARK, sixth Alexandra Pope and BALLENGARRA POPSTAR, seventh Elle Mangan and KIRALA TOUCH OF CLASS – HSH.

In the junior ASHLA, Olivia Thrift is having a ripper show on her honest mare TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH and takes the blue, second Pippa Cullen and BRAEVIEW SOLITAIRE, third Gracie Clements and ROSSWELL CRUSADE, fourth Chloe Underwood and HYDEOUT ELLIE, fifth Lillian Meredith and MERIDIAS GUNMAN.

This concludes the main arena classes as the working classes are now designated to the Schmidt arena. Although many traditionalists miss the atmosphere of the main arena, the surface is good, and this year the crowd better, to watch some really nice work. Maybe the Championship presentation could be done in the main arena, just for the recognition, and photographic opportunities. It's an amazing award to receive, and taking the champion and reserve into main arena, with announcers able to talk up our wonderful Breed, and introduce winners, present on the hallowed green turf, in my opinion only does the Championship and The Australian Stock Horse justice.

The young horses are first off, Robert Vandyke and PEPPERTREEFARM CASTANET are at the head of the line, second Ashley Worpel and JILLIBY ALIBI – HSH, third Alexandra Pope and BALLENGARRA POPSTAR, fourth Paula Brennan and COOLAROO RAINMAKER, fifth BRANDWOOD SANTA CRUZ and Nicole Moxey.

Reserve Champion Hack was BULLSEYE KIDMAN presented by Eloise Clare

Winner of the Youth Time Trial was Pippa Cullen's BRAEVIEW SOLITAIRE

Reserve Champion Working ASH was Chloe Underwood's HYDEOUT MISS ELLIE

ASHLA Winner was Ellyn Prichard, with SHEADY JUBILATION

The kids hit the arena, and if you did not know any better, you could have been watching an open class, the Youth are stepping up and are super competitive, the athletic GORDONVALE CASSIUS and Lucia Merchant take the blue, second Pippa Cullen and BRAEVIEW SOLITAIRE, third Angus Sutherland and PENDIO SASSY HIDE, fourth TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH and Olivia Thrift, fifth Lesley Badior and BARNETTS SELECT – HSH and sixth Lyra Barnett and TYRANOOK STEELY DAN – HSH.

The open working mare is a super class, and most likely the toughest class of the day. Chloe Underwood puts the pressure on and is rewarded with HYDEOUT MISS ELLIE taking the blue, second to the ever-consistent CLOVERLEAF CONDOS COOLDUST and Emily Ninness, third to SHEADY JUBILATION and Ellyn Prichard, fourth Angus Sullivan and PENDIO SASSY HIDE, fifth Brooke Lawson and MAIN CAMP ROYAL PRINCESS – HSH, sixth Olivia Thrift and TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH, seventh Bill Peadon and BIBBENLUKE ANNABELLE.

The gelding class next and riders are seeing what work is being awarded, and it is on from the get go, Cameron Newman and GLENBIRNIE LEROY are at the head of the line, second to STARWALTZ VERDICT – HSH and Bill Peadon, third Stacey Thomas and STEIGERS COMIC CON, fourth Brett Welsh and ALLSTARS MAGIC, fifth Darcy Schliebs and COMBANING DOWNS COOPER, sixth Angie Crump and KAROOLAPARK KNIGHT OWL, seventh Lyra Barnett and TYRANOOK STEELY DAN – HSH.

Brett Welsh and ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE take the win with nice work in the working stallion class, second Abbey Lawson and LAWSONS MOONSHINE – HSH, third Brydie McKillop and COOLIDOWNS HOUDINI, fourth Scott Richardson and BERRAGOON FURPHY – HSH, fifth Aimee Mannix and GLEN LEE INCLUSIVE – HSH.

The crowd builds to watch the championship, and no surprise to see Brett Welsh and ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE bought forward to receive the championship, correct work, calm, all made look too easy, a worthy winner. Reserve and a popular one at that was Chloe Underwood and HYDEOUT MISS ELLIE, Chloe although a junior, handled the pressure, bought her A game, and deserved for her efforts the Reserve Championship.

Time Trial winner in the senior class, to the specialist Bill Peadon and STARWALTZ VERDICT – HSH, and Pippa Cullen in the juniors with BRAEVIEW SOLITAIRE.

Station Horse winners, senior to the versatile SHEADY JUBILATION and Ellyn Prichard, and Olivia Thrift and TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH the juniors.

To finish off a wonderful three days of competition, the Most Versatile Australian Stock Horse Exhibit for youth and seniors is awarded. It is based on a points system and awards the horse and rider combination. We are The Breed for Every Need, and we are versatile, and the recipient of the awards are worthy, winning and placing consistently throughout the Show. Congratulations to Brett and Melanie Welsh with ALLSTARS KRYPTONITE and Olivia Thrift with TOCAL ROYALTY – HSH.

Again, Sydney never disappoints, it's a great three days of competition, and already the countdown is on for 2027. 🏆

2026 MAN FROM SNOWY RIVER STOCKMAN'S CHALLENGE

- Article by Cathy Finlayson Photos by Sarah Finlayson & Jess Brogden -

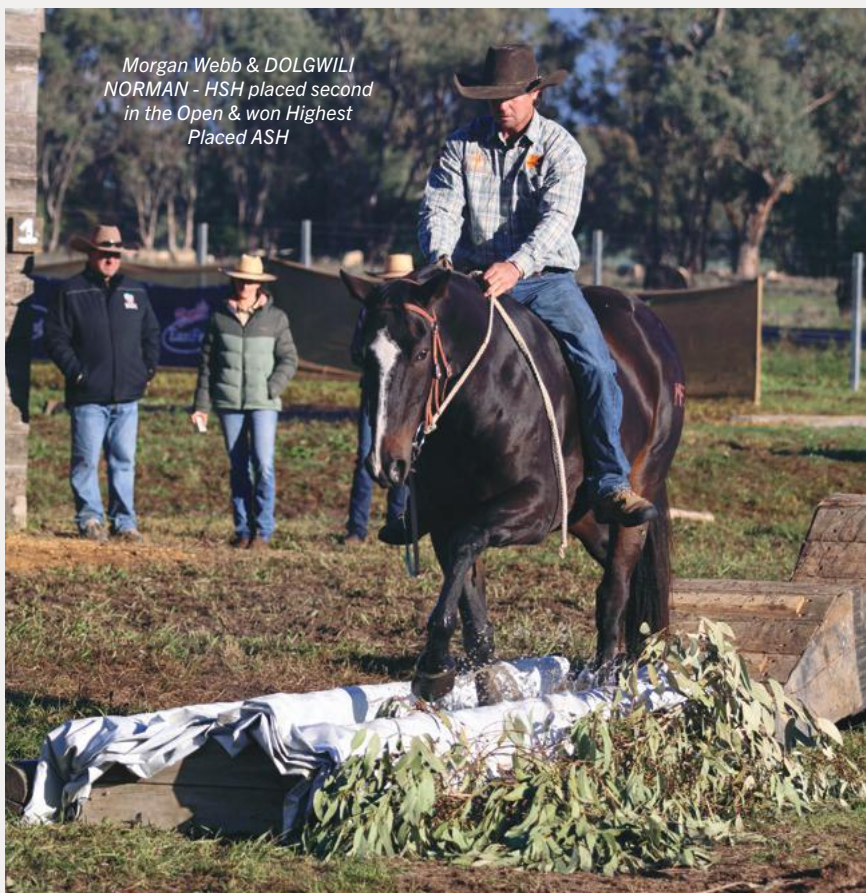

The ASHS is once again proud to sponsor one of the largest Stockman's Challenges in the country and once again ASHS Members and registered Australian Stock Horses dominated at Corryong in April.

Congratulations to all winners and placegetters. These challenges showcase both the talent and horsemanship of the rider and the versatility and willingness of the Breed, and they are always a pleasure to watch.

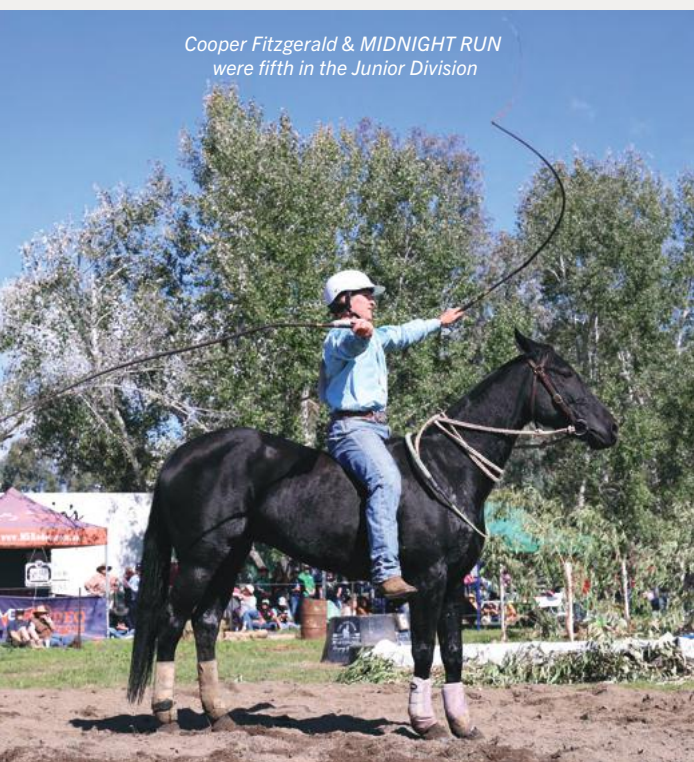

Special mention must go to Emma Webb who won the Ladies Division again this year, making this her 10th Ladies MFSR title, what a phenomenal achievement.

Also, a huge congratulations to the ever consistent Morgan Webb with his 14yo gelding DOLGWILI NORMAN – HSH (BONLAC GIGOLO – HSH/WESTONS CRINKLE – HSH), who have racked up numerous wins and placings, not only in this event, but many other major challenges. Morgan announced that this will be the last time he competes NORMAN as he is being handed down to continue his performance career with the next generation.

Brother and sister duo Jack and Claire Lindley battled it out in the Junior Division with Jack taking the title finishing just 22 points ahead of Claire. Ned Hagon finished third while Cooper Fitzgerald placed fifth. It goes without saying that the skills and abilities of the horses and riders in this division are outstanding. 🐾

PLANNING ON BREEDING YOUR MARE THIS SEASON? THINGS YOU MAY WISH TO CONSIDER...

QUALITY OF THE MARE

First thing's first – is your mare genetically valuable enough to warrant breeding from? If you have a mare who is very special to you personally, then that is still a fair reason to breed her if the aim is to keep the line alive for yourself. It just might be worth keeping in mind, however, if you intend to sell the resultant foal, whether the mare is 'commercial' enough to justify the process? The saying goes 'to make a small fortune out of horses, start with a big one,' and anyone with breeding experience will tell you it can be a tough game financially (and emotionally at times)!

It's also worth ensuring the mare is free from any obvious genetic traits that shouldn't be propagated, such as parrot mouth. The thing about reproduction is that you tend to reproduce that animal – both the good and the bad – so making sure you're starting with a mare that ticks the right boxes is essential.

At this stage, it is also worth considering genetic testing for your mare. This can range from simply assessing coat colour, all the way through to ruling out potentially deadly or performance limiting genetic diseases. Talk to your veterinarian as there are various laboratories that offer panel testing. It is worth knowing the status of your mare for some inherited diseases like PSSM1 etc. especially if she has Quarter Horse genetics in her pedigree.*

So, you've got past Step 1 and own a classy mare (nicely bred, or with a performance history of her own, or even better – both), what next?

HISTORY AND EVALUATION

If the mare is relatively young and a maiden, it is often fair to give her the benefit of the doubt and book a service to a stallion who complements her. The veterinarian will examine her early in the cycle when setting her up to be bred, and any concerns can be raised with the owner during the cycle and a plan devised. If pregnancy is not achieved after, say, two attempts during normal fertile cycles (with known fertile semen) then further investigations can be initiated.

Poor external conformation (sloped & most of vulva above pelvic brim). Mare has caslick to address.

*If purchasing a mare as a broodmare, or with the intention to breed her after a ridden career, it is worth considering getting a mare pre-purchase examination done by your vet. This examination is a general evaluation of the reproductive tract (via ultrasound, palpation, speculum examination, etc.) and while it is no guarantee of future fertility, it does reduce the risk for the buyer if a lot of her value lies in her future genetic potential.

If a mare is older, has a history of poor fertility or a tough foaling in a previous season, it is worth having her evaluated prior to attempting to breed her. The vet will assess the mare for her external conformation, which if abnormal, can indicate problems for conception and pregnancy maintenance. The integrity of the cervix will also be assessed, which can become damaged during previous difficult foalings. The uterus will be checked for the presence of excessive uterine cysts and fluid. Cysts are a degenerative change to the lining of the uterus, and the presence of excessive uterine fluid can indicate inflammation and a uterus which is unable to clear normal post-breeding debris. If any issues are identified, the vet can discuss management of the mare during her cycle and/or pregnancy, and the likelihood of these efforts resulting in a live, healthy foal.

If your mare is noted to have some concerns, don't lose hope entirely, as in many cases veterinary interventions can improve the chances of a successful outcome quite markedly. Examples of these procedures include flushing the uterus with sterile fluids, anti-inflammatory therapies, use of mucolytics, use of ecbolics (most people are familiar with oxytocin), judicious use of antibiotics and several other therapies like immunostimulants. More advanced evaluations for failure to conceive can also be done if required, i.e. submitting uterine fluid samples to the laboratory to look for infectious organisms, or taking uterine biopsy samples to evaluate the quality of the uterine lining and the chances of that uterus being able to carry a foal to term successfully.

If the mare in question has major problems identified on examination, and she is given a fairly hopeless prognosis of carrying her own foal (or her competition career is still the focus), advanced therapies exist such as embryo transfer or OPU. Obviously, use of intensive or advanced interventions can come with considerable expense, so it is important to be realistic and perhaps think in advance how far you're willing to go with a particular mare when you embark on her breeding journey.

*It is also worth considering the overall health of the mare. If she has chronic health conditions like Cushing's disease (that can affect fertility too) or laminitis (can be life threatening and worsened with the weight of pregnancy), it is worth sorting these things out in advance whenever possible.

TIMING

So, you've got the nice mare, she's looking good on veterinary examination, and you're ready to breed. She seems to be coming into season so you want her bred as soon as possible, what could go wrong from here? Most mares experience what is known as a 'transition period' in the early spring, which can last several weeks and can be confusing for owners. This is a natural process whereby most mares have shut down their ovaries over winter and are starting to get back into cycling with a few false start 'follicular waves' first. The mare can be well in season, sometimes for weeks on end, however, never ovulates and therefore doesn't go in foal. The follicle either regresses, or can have an abnormal ovulation and haemorrhage etc. To avoid dealing with a mare in transition, you can simply wait until a little later in the season. Alternatively, your vet can ultrasound her to confirm the presence of a CL (the structure that forms on the ovary after a successful ovulation).

The following cycle after a CL is seen is much easier to manage with a more predictable ovulation. This is particularly important if using expensive semen or a limited supply, like frozen from a deceased stallion. There are many variables in breeding, so each step that can be taken to limit the risk of things going wrong (like ovulation failure) is worth doing wherever possible.

*If breeding an early foal is important to you, then starting in July and providing a rising plane of nutrition can be helpful (a rug can also assist here by conserving calories in cold weather). The most powerful tool however is a light source like an equillum mask or well-lit stable, which can trick the mare into going into transition earlier and give a higher chance of a true cycle come September.

THE OTHER HALF OF THE EQUATION

Another thing to consider if you're having problems, is the stallion. Choosing a stallion with known good fertility (bonus points if you have data from the current season) rules another variable out. Some mares and stallions just don't seem to click genetically, so it is a good idea to have a backup plan with a different stallion also of known good fertility, if your first choice is not working out. 'Changing the bowler' is one of the easier things to try before going down the path of more advanced mare infertility investigations. A fertile stallion should be considered a non-negotiable if the mare is known to be sub-fertile herself. Even at times when everything is perfect with the mare, the stallion and the timing, nothing is absolute in nature, and we must accept sometimes they just don't go in foal...but there is plenty we can do to swing the odds in our favour.

Despite the difficulties faced, getting from conception to looking through the ears of a successful homebred, is one of the most rewarding experiences for any horseman or horsewoman. Best of luck to everyone in season 2026!

2026 BARASTOC INTERSTATE POLOCROSSE SERIES

- Article by Cathy Finlayson - Photos by The Wife Creative -

The ASHS is proud of its longstanding support of the Barastoc Interstate Polocrosse Series that is held annually at Warwick.

This year's event lived up to expectations with some of the best players and horses from around the country converging on one of the best venues in Australia to showcase their skills and deliver some outstanding polocrosse for all to enjoy. The growing popularity of the sport is evident. According to Joe McNally, the livestreaming across the event received more than 20,500 views.

Australian Stock Horses are synonymous with the sport of polocrosse and are generally regarded as the best polocrosse horses in the world. This event certainly supported that statement with registered, competition eligible ASHs winning 10 of the 12 Champion Horse, and Horse & Rider Awards on offer.

The Society would like to congratulate all Members on their success, and we look forward to next year's event which will mark 20 years of international polocrosse at Morgan Park. 🏆

2026 SWAN CUP POLOCROSSE & APPROVED ASH SALE

- Article by Kylie Neville -

The year of the horse has proven to be a wild ride already. After a wet 2025 impacting the event, the 2026 Swan Cup went ahead with both the polocrosse event and Approved Australian Stock Horse Sale on 27-29 March at the Inverell Polocrosse Grounds.

A very dry start to 2026 for northern NSW had our mighty club members putting in many (many) hours leading up to the event on tractors, bobcats, lawnmowers and even shovels to ensure a safe playing surface. Each year the Club adds improvements to the grounds and in 2026 an additional two playing fields and watering points have been incorporated.

It was unfortunately another year for orange spray tans for the players, with the beautiful red dust in fine form thanks to the dry conditions. Apologies to those who had to do the washing after the event – there's still plenty of orange tones coming out of gear.

SWAN CUP & CLUB CARNIVAL POLOCROSSE COMPETITIONS

Despite the dust, there was plenty of polocrosse action with 20 teams playing for the Swan Cup competitions and a further 21 teams in the Club Carnival. A new instalment for 2026 was the Sub Junior Swan Cup competition, which was a crowd favourite, with some well-known and seasoned horses looking out for our youngest riders.

Congratulations to the winners, runners-up, Champion ASH and Best Numbers. Full results and photos are included on our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/theinverellswancup

APPROVED AUSTRALIAN STOCK HORSE SALE

There was strong support for this year's Approved ASH Sale, which attracted 51 Australian Stock Horses from led yearlings to seasoned polocrosse horses. The top-priced horse was the two year-old filly JAYLYN DOWNS BEAMER presented by the Jaylyn Downs ASH Stud selling for $40,000.

The Inverell Polocrosse Club thanks The Australian Stock Horse Society for their support of the Sale, as well as the vendors, purchasers and underbidders. Sale horses are lifetime eligible to come back and compete in the Swan Cup incentive polocrosse competition for over $15,000 in prizemoney and prizes.

AUSTRALIAN STOCK HORSE LADIES ASSOCIATION: 2026 AGM

Australian Stock Horse
Ladies Association

The Australian Stock Horse Ladies Association (ASHLA) held its 2026 Annual General Meeting on Friday 29 May at the Vibe Hotel, Docklands, Melbourne, with 14 Members and two guests in attendance and four Members joining virtually, from Victoria, NSW, WA and SA. The meeting reflected the strength, enthusiasm and continued growth of the Association and another successful year supporting the ladies within the Australian Stock Horse community.

President Jackie Long chaired the meeting, welcoming Members and guests, including the new ASHS CEO Mark Bradley and his personal assistant Chanel Gehle, and thanking them for their assistance in facilitating both the in-person and online meeting.

In her President's Report, Jackie acknowledged the dedication of volunteers, State representatives and committee members whose ongoing commitment continues to strengthen ASHLA. She also introduced ASHLA's new trophies, which received an enthusiastic response from Members and will be presented at future Royal Shows and National events.

Treasurer Jane Allen tabled the financial report, which reflected another sound year for ASHLA. Membership income continued to grow, and the Association recorded a modest operating surplus while maintaining its commitment to sponsorships, trophies and member services. Members also voted to align the Association's financial reporting with the calendar year from 2027.

Members were pleased to receive a report from ASHLA Board Representative Jenny Petrich, who highlighted positive developments within the Australian Stock Horse Society, including record registration numbers, continued improvements to the national judging accreditation platform, and the unanimous approval by the ASHS Board for the development of an official ASHLA flag. The new flag will provide greater visibility for ASHLA at State Shows, the National Show and other major events.

PATRON'S MESSAGE

A highlight of the meeting was a heartfelt message from ASHLA Patron Joy Poole OAM, who reflected on the Association's remarkable journey over the past 50 years.

"When I was voted in as the first President of ASHLA in 1976, I certainly didn't think 50 years later I would be sending you all congratulations on the 50th Anniversary of this wonderful group. Back then women didn't have many ladies' events, particularly at campdrafts. The bulk of our early members came from campdrafting, and the first ASHLA events were held at rodeos. Thank you for continuing to promote Australian saddlery. Nothing looks better than a class of girls in ASHLA with their horses and turnout."

Joy concluded by thanking Members for the honour of serving as Patron alongside Enid Clark and wished everyone continued success into the future.

The meeting also acknowledged the ongoing generosity of ASHLA through its extensive sponsorship program. During the past 12 months, ASHLA continued to support Royal Shows, State Championships, Youth Shows, the Australian Stock Horse National Show and Campdraft Championships, reinforcing the ASHLA's commitment to promoting ladies' competition and recognising excellence across all disciplines.

The AGM also paused and acknowledge Members facing difficult times. Heartfelt condolences were extended to committee member Lynne Knight following the passing of her husband Kenny, a long-time supporter and the only "honorary male" member of ASHLA. Members also sent their best wishes to Melisse Tuma Webb for a full recovery.

ASHLA Members joined the 2026 AGM in-person and online, from across Vic, NSW, WA and SA.

ASHLA NOVICE AWARD

One of the most significant outcomes of the AGM was the unanimous vote in support for changes to the ASHLA Novice Award.

Effective from 1 January 2027, the ASHLA Novice Award will be open to all eligible ASHLA Members who:

- are financial ASHLA Members;
- regardless of age;
- have not previously won an ASHLA Novice Award;
- have not won an ASHLA class at a State Royal Show (Canberra, Sydney, Darwin, Brisbane (Ekka), Adelaide, Melbourne, Perth, Hobart or the Australian Stock Horse National Show prior to the day of judging.

The revised eligibility criteria is designed to provide greater clarity, improve consistency across competitions and create equal opportunities for both junior and senior Members. The updated rules will be incorporated into future editions of the ASHLA Handbook.

Overall High-Point winner was ASHLA Treasurer Jane Allen, with ASHS CEO Mark Bradley.

VALE ENID CLARKE

The Australian Stock Horse Ladies Association extends its heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Enid Clarke following her recent passing.

Enid was a Foundation Member of the Australian Stock Horse Ladies Association and proudly served as our Patron. Her unwavering support, dedication and contribution to ASHLA and the Australian Stock Horse community have left a lasting legacy that will be remembered and appreciated.

Our thoughts are with Enid's family and all who had the privilege of knowing her, during this difficult time.

May she rest in peace.

- Article by Kate Cuffe · Photos Emily Kate Photography -

The 2026 Charleville & District Show was held 14th to 16th May, with this year's event featuring an expanded main ring program. A highlight of the schedule was the inclusion of a comprehensive Australian Stock Horse program alongside the Charleville Pharmacy Stockman's Challenge, held on Saturday afternoon.

The ASH events were strongly supported, with competitors travelling from across the state including Hughenden, Allora, Windorah, Humberburn, Tambo and Blackall. Friday's led ASH classes showcased a strong line-up of quality horses and handlers. FOURSONS MILA – HSH, owned and presented by Sarah Godsell, was awarded Champion Led ASH, while Reserve Champion went to Sarah's young stallion, FOURSONS HEARTY BARON – HSH. FOURSONS MILA – HSH received a sash and embroidered rug kindly donated by Valera Vale Equine.

The hunter classes also attracted quality competition, with ASH horses achieving strong results throughout the ring. Renee Wearing claimed both Champion Led Hunter and Champion Ridden Hunter with her gelding DUNROSE CONSPIRACY, while her lovely grey mare CHIPIN AWAY was awarded Reserve Champion Led Hunter. Courtney Scott and her accomplished gelding BAR H FORT BRONSON were awarded Reserve Champion Ridden Hunter.

Saturday morning's ridden ASH classes saw excellent entries, with numbers more than doubling from the previous year. Windorah competitor Natalie Gorringer was awarded Champion ASH Hack aboard Talia Vieira's stallion MY LIL DUCK N ACRE, receiving a sash and embroidered rug generously sponsored by CUF Group. Reserve Champion Hack was awarded to juvenile competitor Rory Nicholls aboard her mare KAYLEE PARK SNOOPY – HSH.

The Working Stock Horse classes were also well contested. KARI CLEOPATRA, owned by Richard and Kate Cuffe and ridden by Kate, claimed Champion Working ASH, earning a sash and embroidered rug sponsored by Frazer Earthmoving & Mechanical. Reserve Champion was awarded to FOURSONS CONFETTI – HSH, ridden by Augathella competitor Sarah Godsell.

Supreme Ridden ASH of the Show was awarded to KARI CLEOPATRA, ridden by Kate Cuffe. The pair received a stunning garland generously donated by local florist Katrina Lehmann of Sandalwood & Sage.

The Charleville Pharmacy Stockman's Challenge returned to the Charleville Show program for its second consecutive year, this year with an expanded format and affiliation with the Central West Challenge Series. While open to all breeds, ASH horses featured prominently across all divisions.

In the Warrego Signs Juvenile Rider Challenge, first place went to Lila Nowlan aboard COLLEGE KEEPIN DESTINY'S STYLE, while Rory Nicholls and KAYLEE PARK SNOOPY – HSH secured third place.

The Raven Stud & Contracting Rookie Challenge saw five of the top seven placings awarded to registered ASH horses. Emily Vassallo, riding her sister's mare KARI CLEOPATRA, claimed first place, receiving $200 in prizemoney and a Made by Harls trophy saddle pad generously donated by the Rose family of Raven Stud & Contracting. Maureen Scott riding ROYALLE WHISKEY ACRES placed second, Leslie MacDonald aboard CLOVELLY SOLOMON – HSH placed third, while equal fifth placings were awarded to Jess Rose riding RAVEN BELLADONNA and Rory Nicholls aboard KAYLEE PARK SNOOPY – HSH.

The Charleville Refrigeration & Electrical Novice Challenge also featured a large representation of registered ASH horses. Maureen Scott riding her young gelding ROYALLE WHISKEY ACRES took out the win, receiving $200 in prizemoney and a Yeti trophy water bottle kindly sponsored by South West Air. Equal second and third placings were awarded to Gabby Egan riding BULLENBONG DEMO – HSH and Tamara Nowlan aboard JAMARA CONRAD – HSH, while Sarah Godsell and FOURSONS CONFETTI – HSH finished in equal fifth place.

ASH horses were also strongly represented in the Nutrien Ag Solutions (Charleville & Tambo Branches) Open Challenge. Courtney Scott secured fourth place aboard her talented gelding BAR H FORT BRONSON, while Sarah Godsell placed fifth riding her stallion CRAIGLEA CONQUEST – HSH.

The Charleville Show Society extends sincere thanks to all sponsors and volunteers who supported both the Charleville Pharmacy Stockman's Challenge and the ASH ring events. Special thanks are extended to judges Mary MacMillan and Sharon Goss, who travelled considerable distances to officiate, and to Emily Kate Photography for capturing the event throughout the weekend. The committee looks forward to welcoming competitors and spectators back in 2027 for an even bigger and better event. 📸

The annual Warwick Show & Rodeo Society Show was held from 20th to 22nd March. The Eastern Downs Branch of the Australian Stock Horse Society once again supported the Warwick Show Society in coordinating and delivering the ASH section of the program.

Competition across the led classes was strong, with competitors travelling from Bonalbo, Beaudesert and Oakey to participate. Champion Led Colt/Stallion was awarded to GLEN LEE TITANIUM – HSH, owned and handled by Brodie Cooper.

In the mare division, Champion Led Mare was STOCKIE CASIO, owned by S & D McLennan and exhibited by Deanne McLellan, with Reserve Champion awarded to WILBRO HUSTLIN HELEN, owned by John Crook-King and exhibited by Carly Domrow.

Champion Led Gelding was awarded to SHEADY BEN N TASSA, a five-year-old owned and exhibited by Carly Domrow, with Reserve Champion awarded to GLENCOE MONASH – HSH, owned by Terisha Furlong and exhibited by Vanessa Bunting.

STOCKIE CASIO was subsequently awarded Supreme Led ASH Exhibit of the Show, receiving a sash, garland (generously donated by Lorna Fanning), $50 prize money, and an embroidered rug donated by the Eastern Downs Branch.

Working classes attracted strong entries, particularly in the Working Stock Horse Gelding (4yrs & Over). Champion Working ASH was awarded to SHEADY BEN N TASSA ridden by Carly Domrow, with the combination receiving a sash, $50 prize money, and an embroidered rug sponsored by Crossdraw Country Co. Reserve Champion was LAZY D CAPTAINS MUSICMAN, owned and exhibited Susan Everson.

Champion ASH Hack was awarded to WILBRO HUSTLIN HELEN, ridden by Carly Domrow, with the combination receiving a sash, $50 prize money, and an embroidered rug donated by Supafloats. Reserve Champion was LAZY D CAPTAINS MUSICMAN, owned and ridden by local Branch Member Susan Everson.

The Supreme Ridden ASH of the Show, introduced in 2021 to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the ASHS, continues to be a highlight of the program. The class recognises the ridden horse that best demonstrates the qualities of the Australian Stock Horse, combining both working and hack elements. Eligible competitors included the winners of the Champion ASH Hack and Champion Working ASH classes. Following its successful introduction and ongoing sponsorship support, the class has been retained as a permanent feature of the show. In 2026, the title was awarded to SHEADY BEN N TASSA, owned and ridden by Carly Domrow. The combination received a garland (sponsored by Lorna Fanning), $50 prize money (kindly donated by Grindstone Australian Stock Horses), and an ASH saddle pad sponsored by Braemore Stock Horses.

The Eastern Downs Branch was fortunate to secure the services of photographer Sarah from Sarah Tucker Photography, with event photographs available via the Sarah Tucker Photography Facebook page. The Branch extends its sincere thanks to judge Carissa Reinke, along with the volunteers, sponsors, stewards and announcer whose contributions ensured the success of the event. It was also encouraging to see strong participation from youth competitors in the ASH classes, reflecting a positive future for the Breed. 🐾

From the New Zealand Branch:

TEN YEARS ON AND THRIVING: NEW ZEALAND BRANCH CELEBRATES ITS 10TH ANNIVERSARY

- Article by Karen Harrison -

It's been a big year for the New Zealand Branch. This is the 10th Anniversary of the Branch, and it was celebrated at the Branch AGM held in Taupo in May, along with awards presentations.

From small beginnings and gatherings, the Branch has continued to thrive, sometimes in difficult circumstances and certainly in areas where Members and horses excel.

In speaking with the founding Member Steve Bryant recently; he was surprised that it had been 10 years, and this was a year to celebrate achievements. Steve has been breeding Australian Stock Horses in NZ for 30 years alongside his wife Ngaire and daughter Julia (now working and living in Australia) and is the principal of Te Kowhai ASH Stud.

His recollection of the sires that were imported into NZ over that time included ROSEBROOK CEDAR RAY – HSH followed by ROSEBROOK BRIGALOW – HSH, both imported by TJ Blake and E Gloyn latterly, which was syndicated at the time with seven people.

These stallions were followed by WARRENBRI JULIO – HSH, J STAR WALKABOUT – HSH and KIWI FINNO – HSH. Most recently another prolific sire was imported by Paddy and Nicky Cornelius, BERRAGOON IMMACULATE. Also imported recently was JH BLACKMARKET – HSH owned by P Kinder. These stallions have undoubtedly contributed to the type of polocrosse and polo horse that is used throughout the North Island of NZ today.

The NZ Branch came into existence in 2015 when Joy Poole visited Steve and discussed the possibility of setting up a Branch. A friend of his for many years and a great source of inspiration, Joy Poole and Head Office staff from Scone set up the basics, while Steve garnered interest from polocrosse players at the Championships being held at the time. It was to be another six months of hard work before the Branch Committee was formed and became a formal entity in 2016.

In 2017, Steve Bryant and Paddy Cornelius presented Australian Stock Horses at Equitana, Auckland, alongside Head Office staff member Cathy Finlayson. The horse in question was TE KOWHAI SKYLAR, who went on to be awarded the 2020 International Performance Horse of the Year.

The Branch has presented three horses for consideration for the same award: ARANUI BUBBLEGUM, TE KOWHAI SKYLAR and BULLENBONG FASHION – HSH, with all three awarded.

Four mares were imported into NZ from 2017 onwards by Keith and Karen Harrison: RAMBLINVALE SUSIE, YINBARUN STELLA – HSH, ATTARDS ELEGANCE and BULLENBONG FASHION – HSH.

This anniversary year AGM in May wrapped up a fairly busy time for the Branch. The incoming Committee have some new faces, and all Members contribute their talent and life skills in many ways. The Branch already has 20 Members with several Youth Members making their mark. The AGM celebrated the 10th Anniversary with special A-branded biscuits made by Mike Meredith and an A-branded cake organised by Raiden Gray.

NZ Branch Committee

President: Paddy Cornelius, Senior Vice President: Steve Bryant, Junior Vice President: Raiden Gray, Secretary/ Treasurer: Karen Harrison, also responsible as the Public Officer, Assistant Secretary: Michele Bolstad, and Committee Members: Ngaire Bryant, Ingrid Ormandy, Ron Weller, Keith Harrison and Mike Meredith

NZ BRANCH HIGH POINT AWARDS 2025/6

High Point Australian Stock Horse 2025/26: BULLENBONG FASHION – HSH (Imp) (Mike Meredith)

Second: LOW ACRE TYME (NZ) (Paddy Cornelius), Third: TE KOWHAI DARCY (NZ) (Steve Bryant), fourth: RAMBLINVALE SUSIE (Imp) (Karen Harrison), fifth: BULLENBONG FASHION – HSH (Harvey Eden), sixth: RAMBLINVALE SUSIE (Keith Harrison)

High Point Junior Youth: Harvey Eden

Certificates of Recognition: Best International Polocrosse Horse awarded by the USA Men's Team – LOW ACRE SHALALALA (NZ) owned and bred by Paddy & Nicky Cornelius, and Certificate from Head Office for nine years' service as Branch President, also presented to Paddy Cornelius.

It was also noted at the AGM by Director Jenny Petrich that the Branch was awarded 2025 Branch of the Year (a shared award) and that the 2025 International Performance Horse of the Year was awarded to BULLENBONG FASHION – HSH. Two Branch Members were attending the AGM Dinner in Melbourne and were presented with the awards by the CEO. Our thanks to Mike Meredith and Raiden Gray for making the trip to Australia.

Following on from the AGM was the presentation of the 2026 NZ Branch Virtual Challenge placings and overall winners – the first time NZ Branch has run this event. With over 14 Members and their horses entered, the NZ judge Dave Young was very busy with video reviews.

Hack Challenge: RAMBLINVALE SUSIE (Imp) & Karen Harrison
Yearling Futurity: TE KOWHAI ROMEO (NZ) & Ngaire Bryant
Junior Challenge: TE KOWHAI DARCY (NZ) & Steve Bryant
Youth Challenge Classes: Oakleigh Hammond (Class 7) & Isaac Epps (Class 8)
Other Breed Overall: Smoke n Embers & Keith Harrison
Open Challenge: RAMBLINVALE SUSIE (Imp) & Keith Harrison

Junior Challenge winner was Steve and Ngaire Bryant's TE KOWHAI DARCY

For a small remote Branch, NZ Members continue to make a mark in their respective areas of interest: polocrosse and Ranch Horse competitions (where the ASH excels), Mangamahu Campdraft, now in its third year where 11 of 12 finalists were ASH, cattle training days in conjunction with western riding clubs or NZ Branch-based, dressage and working equitation on the international stage in virtual competitions, and running a first-ever clinic with Australian horseman Rob Durkin. NZ Branch Members can be justifiably proud of their achievements.

What's next for the NZ Branch? One Member said it well: "More of the same." Fair enough. We are working on adjusting an existing arena to incorporate a cut out pen and holding yards to run our first campdraft; for part of that enterprise another Member is organising a fundraising raffle; we are arranging for an ASHS Judge and competitor to come and bring us knowledge and skills over three days with a clinic and Challenge later in the year; we are assisting breeders to consider options to increase the gene pool; and we are considering ways in which we can start to train Members as judges for the future.

Finally, we would like to acknowledge and thank the owners, breeders, competitors and sponsors over the past year for their support and generosity. 🇺🇸

From the Eastern Branch ANNUAL ONE DAY SHOW

- Article by Maddie Brown - Photos by Jessica Coady -

Eastern Branch held its annual One Day Show on Sunday 8th February at Morisset Showground. With perfect weather, a great program and the support of Barastoc as major sponsor of the Show, the event was well attended and saw competitors and spectators alike enjoy a great day out with led, hack and working events on display as well as a dedicated youth ring, encouragement ring and four challenges.

Judges Elle Managan, Lindy Walker and Natasha Achurch kept the morning ring events running smoothly, while challenge judges Rob Sharp, Lynne Knight and Maddie Brown worked through the hack, working and station horse sections of the Young Horse, Youth, Encouragement and Open Challenges.

Eastern Branch would like to say a huge thank you to our valued judges for giving up their time and expertise, and to the hardworking committee and volunteers for running the Show. We would also like to extend a big thank you to sponsors The Aussie Farrier, Horseland Central Coast and Yarramalong Farm Supplies for donating our wonderful prizes for the challenges.

From the New England Branch BRANCH ANNUAL SHOW

- Article by Caitlin Croft · Photos by Kristy Bullen -

The New England Branch held their Annual Show on 21st and 22nd March at the Uralla Showgrounds. It was a pleasure to have our judges Kate and Cameron Jones from Werris Creek, Phoebe Kerin from Werris Creek, and Bruce Withers from Singleton, to oversee the Show. A big thank you goes out to those who donated their time to steward and assist the committee leading up to and over the weekend. The New England Branch would like to thank the announcers, sponsors and photographer Kristy Bullen for making the Show such a success.

Seeing the quality of horses that attended was a pleasure, making it very hard for the judges to make their decisions. A lot of positive feedback was given about how well maintained the grounds were, and about how well run the program was for only a very small committee. One of our biggest shows yet, we are very happy to report that it was very successful, and we can't wait for the remaining events of the year. 🏆

Supreme Hack was Caitlyn Vaughan's DRUMORA DANNY.
